Negotiating Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicana family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book's discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicana family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships

Sunday ,1882 Of Women Borne Cynthia R. Wallace,2016-03-08 The literature of Adrienne Rich Toni Morrison Ana Castillo and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie teaches a risky self giving way of reading and being that brings home the dangers and the possibilities of suffering as an ethical good Working the thought of feminist theologians and philosophers into an analysis of these women s writings Cynthia R Wallace crafts a literary ethics attentive to the paradoxes of critique and revision universality and particularity and reads in suffering a redemptive or redeemable reality Wallace s approach recognizes the generative interplay between ethical form and content in literature which helps isolate more distinctly the gendered and religious echoes of suffering and sacrifice in Western culture By refracting these resonances through the work of feminists and theologians of color her book also shows the value of broad ranging ethical explorations into literature with their power to redefine theories of reading and the nature of our responsibility to art and each other
