Restructuring Britain: The Changing Social Structure Chris Hamnett, Linda McDowell, Philip Sarre, 1989-05 In the past decade it is often argued the enterprise culture monetarism and hands off government have inaugurated a new phase of social change in the United Kingdom But how widespread or profound is the metamorphosis The Changing Social Structure addresses the major topics of the current debate and explores the significance of recent cultural developments This stimulating introduction to contemporary British society investigates the realities behind the myths and assumptions and evaluates the theories that attempt to explain them This thought provoking textbook is essential reading for students and lecturers in sociology geography economics and politics as well as those taking interdisciplinary courses on m

Power Restructuring In China And Russia Mark Lupher, 2018-02-12 The massive economic transformations and political upheavals that have been sweeping China and the Soviet Union in the final decades of the twentieth century are among the great dramas of our time Yet the origins of these revolutionary changes are murky and their outcomes unclear Have we witnessed the demise of an archaic authoritarian order and the rise of pluralism and democracy or are the tumultuous events of the post Mao era and the period of perestroika more usefully viewed in light of broader patterns of power and politics in Chinese and Russian history Considering these questions with a new interpretation of power relations and political processes in China and Russia Mark Lupher explores the imperial era the communist period and the current situation in both countries Rather than speaking of reform which too often is understood as liberalization along Western lines his discussion is focused on power restructuring the ebb and flow of state power the centralization and decentralization of political and economic power and the three way struggles between central rulers various elites and nonprivileged groups that drive these processes Luper s power restructuring analysis is noteworthy in combining broad comparative historical analysis and conceptualization with a closely focused discussion and reinterpretation of the Chinese Cultural Revolution the core of his book By comparing and bringing new light to bear on a series of pivotal episodes in Chinese and Russian history he furthers our understanding and assessment of processes that will continue to unfold in China Russia and the former Soviet republics

Power, Conflict, and Exchange in Social Life Thomas Martin Baumgartner,1978 Global Restructuring, State, Capital and Labour A. Bieler,W. Bonefeld,P. Burnham,A. Morton,2006-04-26 This book provides a critical engagement between contending historical materialist approaches that have played a crucial role in shaping post positivist International Relations theory It analyzes globalization as a process of state formation and argues that its fate depends on the neo liberal recomposition of labour relations

Intellectuals, Intellectuality, and the Restructuring of Power After Modernity and Communism Powers of Desire Michael D. Kennedy,1992 Power and Restructuring Rosemary Ommer,Peter R. Sinclair,2006 This is a book about power in small places its perceptions and realities where these conflict and where they come together Based on research conducted on Canada s Atlantic and Pacific coasts the chapters analyze the interaction of people and environment in coastal settings the way power operates now and how it has operated in the past The book covers a wide range of natural resource issues and people s responses to change It insists on a holistic perspective that recognizes the vital importance of social and ecological interconnectedness This work breaks old disciplinary constraints and mirrors the ways in which people the places in which they live and the culture that sustains them are a seamless whole This book is part of Coasts Under Stress a research project concerned with the impact of social and environmental restructuring on environmental and human health The project is an initiative between Memorial University of Newfoundland and the University of Victoria funded by SSHRC and NSERC

Federalism and State Restructuring in Nepal Yash P. Ghai, Jill Cottrell, 2008 Left Coast City Richard Edward DeLeon, 1992 This book provides insight into how San Francisco's progressive coalition developed between 1975 and 1991 what stresses emerged to cause splintering within the coalition and how it fell apart in the 1991 mayoral campaign DeLeon analyzes the success and failures of the progressive movement as it toppled the business dominated pro growth regime imposed stringent controls on growth and development and achieved political control of city hall Black Social Capital Marion Orr, 1999 Deindustrialization white flight and inner city poverty have spelled trouble for Baltimore schools Marion Orr now examines why school reform has been difficult to achieve there revealing the struggles of civic leaders and the limitations placed on Baltimore's African American community as each has tried to rescue a failing school system Examining the interplay between government and society Orr presents the first systematic analysis of social capital both within the African American community black social capital and outside it where social capital crosses racial lines Orr shows that while black social capital may have created solidarity against white domination in Baltimore it hampered African American leaders capacity to enlist the cooperation from white corporate elites and suburban residents needed for school reform Orr examines social capital at the neighborhood level in elite level interactions and in intergovernmental relations to argue that black social capital doesn't necessarily translate into the kind of intergroup coalition needed to bring about school reform He also includes an extensive historical survey of the black community showing how distrust engendered by past black experiences has hampered the formation of significant intergroup social capital The book features case studies of school reform activity including the first analysis of the politics surrounding Baltimore's decision to hire a private for profit firm to operate nine of its public schools These cases illuminate the paradoxical aspects of black social capital in citywide school reform while offering critical perspectives on current debates about privatization site based management and other reform alternatives Orr's book challenges those who argue that social capital alone can solve fundamentally political problems by purely social means and questions the efficacy of either privatization or black community power to reform urban schools Black Social Capital offers a cogent conceptual synthesis of social capital theory and urban regime theory that demonstrates the importance of government politics and leadership in converting social capital into a resource that can be mobilized for effective social change Making Sense Of Collectivity MALESEVIC S., Mark Haugaard, 2002-09-20 This is a new era where the very notion of collective identity is challenged Sociologists on Sociology Bob Mullan, 1996 A unique collection of interviews with some of the world's most significant sociologists Revitalizing Urban Neighborhoods William Dennis Keating, Norman Krumholz, Philip Star, 1996 Since the 1950s and the advance of urban renewal local governments and urban policy have focused heavily on the central business district However such development has all but ignored the inner city neighborhoods that continue to struggle in the shadows of high rise America This analysis of urban neighborhoods in the United States from 1960 to 1995 presents fifteen essays by scholars of urban planning and development Together they show how urban neighborhoods can and must be preserved as economic cultural and political centers

Power in the City Marion Orr, Valerie C. Johnson, 2008 A collection of thirteen essays considered classics in the field of urban politics from leading scholar Clarence Stone with new essays by the editors and by Stone himself that contextualize the impact of his previous works and suggest new directions for researchers
