Housing in the European Countryside Nick Gallent,Mark Shucksmith,Mark Tewdwr-Jones,2003-12-08 Housing in the European Countryside provides an overview of the housing pressures and policy challenges facing Europe while highlighting critical differences By drawing on contemporary research work of leading authors in the fields of housing studies rural geography and planning the book provides an introduction to housing issues across the European countryside for those who have hitherto been unexposed to such concerns and who wish to gain some basic insight This in depth review of housing pressure in the European countryside reveals both the form nature and variety of problems now being experienced in different parts of Europe in addition to outlining policy solutions that are being provided by member states and other agencies in meeting the rural housing challenge at this time and in the years ahead      Problematic Wildlife II Francesco Maria Angelici,Lorenzo Rossi,2020-05-07 In a world where habitats are constantly changing and the impact of anthropization on the environment is increasingly intense interactions between human and wildlife are becoming more and more complex Some species pose problems for human activities while many others need to be helped in order to continue to exist This book follows the first volume called Problematic Wildlife edited by F M Angelici and published by Springer in 2016 which has had considerable success with readers and critics The volume includes 21 chapters divided into 7 parts devoted specific topics which are approached in a multidisciplinary way There are both review chapters and specific cases always bearing in mind the interest for an international audience The book is useful both for scientists wildlife specialists conservationists zoologists ecologists university students nature managers and for those who live in contact with wildlife and its problems such as farmers shepherds hunters urban planners and staff of parks and nature reserves Its ultimate goal is to offer scientific and pragmatic approaches to manage each categories of problematic species
