The Sacraments Compact Study:

Sacraments After Christendom Andrew Francis, Janet Sutton, 2022-10-27 In contemporary Western society the church has been pushed to the margins leading experts to describe the current era as a time after Christendom Many traditional churches and congregations are struggling a condition worsened by the COVID 19 pandemic regulations As the practice of churchgoing wanes the performance of the sacrament is called into question How can we bring the traditional communal experience of sacrament into the modern world In Sacraments after Christendom Andrew Francis and Janet Sutton tackle this question head on exploring and discussing the enactment of the sacrament in the context of church decline and an increasingly isolated world In doing so they deconstruct traditional perceptions and broaden our understanding of ritual and community in order to rediscover the truth of the sacrament The eve of the Reformation, studies in the religious life and thought of the English people Francis Aidan Gasquet (card.), 1900 50 Ways to Tap the Power of the Sacraments Joseph E. Manton, Ghezzi, 1995 Written in 50 short anecdotal chapters this book presents a practical useful picture of that spirit filled sacramentally powered life that is every Christian's birthright What God Has Joined Peter J. Elliott, 2010-03-01 Much has been written about marriage from the sociological and psychological point of view and as an object of civil and canon law But in terms of systematic theology this treatment of marriage as a sacrament may very well be unique Every effort has been made to keep the text from becoming too academic while at the same time providing the average educated reader with a wealth of original insights into the mystery of marriage in creation and as transformed by Christ Chapters cover sacramental consent bond and covenant as well as the quest for the sign Such thorny problems as the role of faith in the sacrament marriage with an unbaptized person the most pressing ecumenical questions and the relationship between the sacrament and contraception are studied in depth Finally the sacrament of family is treated at some length with an eye to its social and redemptive dimensions Essays on Being Reformed Dirkie Smit, 2009-12-01 What does it mean to be Reformed Christians in the world today and in Africa and South Africa What does it mean to commemorate the legacy of John Calvin 1509 1564 after 500 years in a modern world characterised by democracy by popular notions of human dignity and human rights by worldwide struggles for individual freedoms and for social justice by a global economy in crisis when social historians argue about the lasting contribution of Calvin and his followers precisely with respect to all these modern phenomena The 28 essays by Dirkie Smit selected for this volume deal with such questions Studies in English Literature , 1966 Tulane Studies in English , 1969 Historical Studies Eugene Lawrence, 1876 Historical Studies Eugene LAWRENCE (Historical Writer.), 1876 Theological Studies , 1961 Critical Dialogues in Latinx Studies Ana Y. Ramos-Zayas, Mérida M. Rúa, 2021-08-10 WINNER D Scott Palmer Prize for Best Edited Collection given by the New England Council of Latin American Studies Introduces new approaches theoretical trends and understudied topics in Latinx Studies This groundbreaking work offers a multidisciplinary social science oriented perspective on Latinx studies including the social histories and contemporary lives of a diverse range of Latina and Latino populations Editors Ana Y Ramos Zayas and Mridha M R have crafted an anthology that is unique in both form and content The book combines previously published canonical pieces with original cutting edge works created for this volume The sections of the text are arranged thematically as critical dialogues each with a brief preface that provides context and a conceptual direction for the scholarly conversation that ensues The editors frame the volume around the humanistic social sciences using the term to highlight the historical and social contexts under which expressive cultural forms and archival records are created Critical Dialogues in Latinx Studies masterfully sheds light on the diversity and complexity of the everyday lives of Latinx populations the political economic structures that shape enduring racialization and cultural stereotyping and the continuing efforts to carve out new lives as diasporic transnational global and colonial subjects Philosophical Studies, 1939 Japanese Saints John Patrick Hoffmann, 2007-01-01 Based on research in a small congregation in northern Japan and in depth interviews with foreign missionaries Japanese Saints is the first book to provide an in depth qualitative examination of what it is like to be a Japanese Mormon The Presbyterian and Reformed Review Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield, 1898 Includes section Reviews of recent theological literature Two Studies in the History of Doctrine Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield, 1897 Mirror and Memory Prof. Richard P. Heitzenrater, 1989-08-01 Let rigorous scholarship shape faithful memory Discovery and reflection are the twin tasks of the historian Discovery is the researcher's work uncovering what has been lost or overlooked Reflection is the work of the interpreter drawing meaning from what has been found Without discovery reflection has no factual basis Without reflection discovery has no significance for the present In this collection of essays Richard P Heitzenrater synthesizes the results of his pioneering archival research on early Methodist history and offers careful reflections on what these findings mean for our understanding of the movement His aim throughout is to provide a clear and undistorted view of the Methodist past one that allows readers to appreciate the full richness and complexity of the tradition Heitzenrater reminds us that knowledge of our history is essential to an honest assessment of who we are today Those who belong to a living and vital heritage are strengthened not only by remembering the vision that set them on their way but also by recognizing the possibilities that continue to advance their tradition Mirror and Memory is both a model of rigorous historical scholarship and an invitation to faithful memories This volume is intended to set in historical context the official United Methodist theological statements in The United Methodist Book of Disciplines of 1972 and 1988 and to foster reflection on and discussion of the 1988 statement The Union Review, 1874 The Journal of Libertarian Studies, 1977 Journal of Theological Studies, 1961 Raphael to Renoir Stijn Alsteens, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), National Gallery of Scotland, 2009 The works from the Bonna Collection are illustrated in color and whenever possible at their actual sizes They are arranged chronologically by the artist's date of birth and are grouped according to the main artistic schools This volume is introduced by an interview with Jean Bonna by George Goldner Each drawing is then described in an entry many of which have comparative illustrations that shed further light on individual works BOOK JACKET
