The Ritual Process Structure And Anti Structure:

The Ritual Process Victor Turner, 1995 In The Ritual Process Structure and Anti Structure Victor Turner examines rituals of the Ndembu in Zambia and develops his now famous concept of Communitas He characterizes it as an absolute inter human relation beyond any form of structure The Ritual Process has acquired the status of a small classic since these lectures were first published in 1969 Turner demonstrates how the analysis of ritual behavior and symbolism may be used as a key to understanding social structure and processes He extends Van Gennep's notion of the liminal phase of rites of passage to a more general level and applies it to gain understanding of a wide range of social phenomena Once thought to be the vestigial organs of social conservatism rituals are now seen as arenas in which social change may emerge and be absorbed into social practice As Roger Abrahams writes in his foreword to the revised edition Turner argued from specific field data His special eloquence resided in his ability to lay open a sub Saharan African system of belief and practice in terms that took the reader beyond the exotic features of the group among whom he carried out his fieldwork translating his experience into the terms of contemporary Western perceptions Reflecting Turner's range of intellectual interests the book emerged as exceptional and eccentric in many ways yet it achieved its place within the intellectual world because it so successfully synthesized continental theory with the practices of ethnographic reports The American Anthropologist called Turner's book ingenious and erudite rich in highly stimulating ideas Victor Turner 1920 1983 was a research officer at the Rhodes Livingstone Institute in Zambia where he began what was to be a lifelong study of Ndembu village life ritual and symbolism He taught at the University of Manchester from 1955 to 1963 when he moved to the United States Turner served as professor of anthropology at Cornell University 1964 1968 From 1968 to 1977 he was professor of anthropology and social thought at the University of Chicago and then until the time of his death he was William R Kenan Professor of Anthropology and Religion at the University of Virginia Roger Abrahams recently retired as director of the Center for Folklore and Ethnography at the University of Pennsylvania

The Ritual Process VICTOR. TURNER, Roger D. Abrahams, Alfred Harris, 2017-10-12 In The Ritual Process Structure and Anti Structure Victor Turner examines rituals of the Ndembu in Zambia and develops his now famous concept of Communitas He characterizes it as an absolute inter human relation beyond any form of structure The Ritual Process has acquired the status of a small classic since these lectures were first published in 1969 Turner demonstrates how the analysis of ritual behavior and symbolism may be used as a key to understanding social structure and processes He extends Van Gennep's notion of the liminal phase of rites of passage to a more general level and applies it to gain understanding of a wide range of social phenomena Once thought to be the vestigial organs of social conservatism rituals are now seen as arenas in which social change may emerge and be absorbed into social practice As Roger Abrahams writes in his foreword to the revised edition Turner argued from specific field data His special eloquence resided in his ability to lay open a sub Saharan African system of belief and practice in terms that took the reader beyond the exotic features of the group among whom he carried out his fieldwork translating his experience into the terms of contemporary Western perceptions Reflecting Turner s range of intellectual interests the book emerged as exceptional and eccentric in many ways yet it achieved its place within the intellectual world because it so successfully synthesized continental theory with the practices of ethnographic reports

The Ritual Process Victor Witter Turner,1966 The Ritual Process Victor Witter Turner,1977 The Ritual Process Victor Turner,1961 The ritual process Victor W. Turner,1970 The Ritual Process Victor Witter Turner,1974 Architecture, Ritual and Cosmology in China Xuemei Li,2023-05-31 Drawing on the author s extensive fieldwork in the Dong areas in southwest China this book presents a detailed picture of the Dong s buildings and techniques with new insights into the Dong s cosmology and rituals of everyday life meshed with the architecture and the symbolic meanings It examines how the buildings and techniques of the Dong are ordered and influenced by the local culture and context The timber bridges and drum towers are the Dong s most prominent architectural monuments Usually built elaborately with multiple roofs these bridges and drum towers were designed and maintained by the local carpenters who also built the village suspended houses in an oral tradition carried down from father to son or to apprentice They were funded entirely by the local people and the bridges tend to be built in places without great pressure of traffic or another bridge already existing close by Why does such great expense go into the Dong s buildings with elaboration How were they built And what do they mean to their users and builders This book is an anthropological study on the Dong s architecture and technique and it aims to contribute a discourse on the interdisciplinary research area It is suitable for graduate and postgraduate readers

Egalitarian Dynamics Bruce Kapferer,Marina Gold,2024-07-01 Liminality the state of being betwixt and between is one of anthropology s most influential concepts This volume reconsiders Victor Turner s innovative extension of Arnold Van Gennep s concept of liminality from within the Manchester tradition of Social Anthropology established by Max Gluckman Turner s work was grounded in ethnography and engaged with philosophical perspectives in varied socio historical contexts extending well beyond the confines of the anthropology that initially inspired much of his work Liminality has therefore become a concept with broad interdisciplinary reach Engaging with topical issues across the globe from neuroscience to open access publishing and refugee experiences in Europe this volume launches Turner s fundamental work into the future

Liminality and the City in Contemporary New York Fiction Alina Stocklöv,2025-04-16 This book explores liminal spaces and states in New York City literature after 2000 The concept of liminality refers to a transitional state where people places or ideas exist between two clearly defined conditions In this ambiguous in between state uncertainty indeterminacy and change prevail temporarily suspending traditional norms and allowing for complex identity formation and social reordering Liminality offers a multifaceted interdisciplinary approach to urban literature as the city itself is defined by both temporal and spatial thresholds The study examines the interplay between liminality the city and postmodernism as well as the literary representation and narrative depiction of these relations Drawing on key anthropological works by Arnold van Gennep and Victor Turner and engaging with the writings of Jacques Derrida Henri Lefebvre Carl Gustav Jung Michel Foucault Walter Benjamin and Homi K Bhabha this study investigates the development of the concept of liminality in the humanities It then proceeds with comparative literary analysis of selected texts by canonical authors such as Don DeLillo Jonathan Safran Foer Joseph O Neill and Teju Cole focusing on urban mobility liminal spaces and New York as a place of memory and trauma in the post 9 11 literary landscape

In the World but Not of the World A. Sue Russell,2019-11-20 There has been much discussion of two dimensions of the kingdom of God in scholarship the temporal already not yet and the embodied spirit flesh Russell proposes that there is a third parallel dimension a social dimension Using Victor Turner s concepts of structure antistructure and liminality Russell explores how these concepts are consistently expressed in Jesus teaching in Paul s writing and through the writers of the second and third centuries She demonstrates how from the very beginning of the Jesus movement Christ followers were unique not because their members were to live liminal lives apart from structure but because they lived out new antistructural relationships within existing structures and thus transformed them They lived liminally within their structure

Betwixt and Between Liminality and Marginality Zohar Hadromi-Allouche,Michael Hubbard MacKay,2023-03-20 Betwixt and Between Liminality and Marginality Mind the Gap offers an interdisciplinary thinking on the marginal within society Using the framework of Victor Turner s earlier notions of liminality the book both challenges Turner s symbolic anthropology and celebrates its continued influence across disciplines and under new theoretical constraints Liminality in its simplest forms provides language for meaningful approaches to articulate transition and change It also represents complex social theories beyond Turner s classical symbolic approach While demonstrating the enduring relevance of Turner s language for expressing transition this volume keeps an eye toward the validity of critiques against him It thus theorizes with Turner s work while updating even abandoning some of his primary ideas when applying it to contemporary social issues A central focus of this volume is marginality Turner recognized that marginals like liminars are betwixt and between however they lack assurance that their ambiguity will be resolved This volume explores the dialogic relationship of space and agency to recognize marginal groups and people and inquire without a harmonious resolution what happens to the marginals Have race class gender and sexual orientation become the space for thinking about reintegration and communitas Each chapter examines how marginal groups or liminal spaces and ideas destabilize shape and affect the dominant culture The Princeton Seminary Bulletin Princeton Theological Seminary,1995 Vols for 1907 1908 1936 1937 no 1 Commencement issue no 2 Necrology report no 3 News no 4 Catalogue v for 1937 1938 1938 1939 no 1 3 News no 2 Bulletin of courses no 4 Catalogue v for 1939 1940 1944 1945 no 1 4 News no 2 Bulletin of courses no 3 Catalogue v for 1945 1946 no 1 Bulletin of courses no 2 4 News no 3 Catalogue v for 1946 1947 1952 1953 no 1 3 4 News no 2 Catalogue Instruments of Devotion Henning Laugerud,Laura Katrine Skinnebach,2007 Redigeret af Henning Laugerud og Laura Katrine Skinnebach

Sekulariseringen af den vestlige kultur er om ikke en myte så betydeligt overvurderet. I dagens aktuelle debatter om religion og religiøsitet anerkender langt de fleste kristendommens indflydelse på Europas historie, filosofi og kultur. Instruments of Devotion er en tværfaglig antologi skrevet af internationalt anerkendte forskere fra The European Network on the Instruments of Devotion (ENID) og i 11 artikler fokuseres specifikt på de instrumentelle aspekter af andagt og fromhedspraksis i perioden fra det 14. århundrede og frem til i dag. Artiklerne diskuterer relationen mellem den materielle kultur og det religiøse liv, hvordan musik, bøger, litteratur og billeder har udtrykt og intensiveret fromhed og pietet i den kristne kultur i et historisk perspektiv. Antologiens mange forskelligartede indgangsvinkler spænder fra middelalderens visuelle teorier til postmodernismens perspektiver på katolicismen og illustrerer således det komplekse mønster af ændringer, kontinuitet og sammenhænge i den europæiske kultur og pietetshistorie.
