

The image features a purple background. On the left side, there is a wooden cross with a black rectangular block at its base. In the center, a light-colored, thorny branch, possibly a branch of a desert shrub, runs vertically. The branch has several sharp, dark thorns. The text "FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT" is written in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the middle of the image, partially overlapping the branch and the purple background.

Boyer,2016-06-30 The Lent Easter seasons cover one fourth of the year or 25 percent of the liturgical year One of the many things we do as Roman Catholics is sing Lenten and Easter hymns During Lent we express our sorrow for sin as we pray fast and give alms During Easter we shout Alleluias at the end of many hymns to express our praise of God for having raised Christ from the dead Thus those who observe Lent and Easter sing religious hymns written for each season The sounds of Lenten hymns in minor keys give way to Easter hymns in major ones This book presents an exercise for every day of Lent and Easter that combines the daily Scripture texts from the Lectionary for Mass with religious hymns sung during Lent and Easter It is designed to be used by individuals for private prayer or by families for public prayer A six part exercise is offered for every one of the 135 entries 1 the liturgical day 2 the daily Scripture texts 3 a verse from a traditional hymn 4 a reflection 5 a question for personal meditation and 6 a concluding prayer Transactions of the Highland and Agricultural
