World Scriptures An Introduction To Comparative Religions:

World Scriptures Kenneth Kramer,1986 World Scripture is a guidebook to the primary source materials of the classical living religions of the world It is a guidebook which innovatively blends critical and interpretative tools with sacred symbols and stories of Ultimacy

Anthology of World Scriptures Robert E. Van Voorst,2000 ANTHOLOGY OF WORLD SCRIPTURES is a collection of the most notable and instructive scriptures of the major living religions of the world Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Confucianism Taoism Shinto Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity and Islam It provides comprehensive and pedagogically sound access to the sacred literature of the world

Classics and Interpretations Ching-I Tu,2017-11-30 In recent years in the West scholars have attempted to unravel old constructs of interpretation and understanding using the discipline of hermeneutics or the scientific study of textual interpretation Borrowed from students of the ever growing body of biblical interpretive literature that originated in the early Christian era theoretical hermeneutics has given many contemporary scholars potent tools of textual interpretation Classics and Interpretations applies this method to Chinese culture Several essays focus on hermeneutic traditions of Neo Confucianism Others move outside of these traditions to attempt an understanding of the role of hermeneutics in Taoist and Buddhist textual interpretation in Chinese poetics and painting and in contemporary Chinese culture This volume makes a concerted effort to remedy our ignorance of the Chinese hermeneutical tradition Part 1 The Great Learning and Hermeneutics demonstrates the use of commentary to define how the individual creates his social self and discusses differing interpretations of the Ta hsueh text and its treatment as either canonical or heterodox Part 2 Canonicity and Orthodoxy considers the philosophical touchstones employed by Neo Confucian canonical exegetes and polemicists and discusses the Han canonization of the scriptural Five Classics while illuminating a double standard that existed in the hermeneutical regime of late imperial China Part 3 Hermeneutics as Politics discusses the transformation of both the classics and scholars and explores the dominant hermeneutic tradition in Chinese historiography the scriptural tradition and reinterpretation of the Ch un ch iu and reveals the pragmatism of Chinese hermeneutics through comparison of the Sung debates over the Mencius The concluding sections include essays on Chu Hsi and Interpretation of Chinese Classics Hermeneutic Traditions in Chinese Poetics and Non Confucian Contexts Reinterpretation of Confucian Texts in the Ming Ch ing Period and Contemporary Interpretations of Confucian Culture Through these literate and brilliantly written essays the reader witnesses not merely the great breadth and depth of Chinese hermeneutics but also its continuity and evolutionary vigor This volume will excite scholars of the Confucian Buddhist and Taoist systems of thought and belief as well as students of history and hermeneutics

Anthology of World Scriptures Robert E. Van Voorst,1997 This anthology includes the most notable and instructive scriptures of Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Confucianism Taoism Shinto Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity and Islam The context for applying these readings is also provided through a short introduction at the beginning of each chapter

African Identities and World

Christianity in the Twentieth Century Klaus Koschorke, Jens Holger Schjørring, 2005 The map of global Christianity continues to undergo dramatic changes and on this map Africa comes to the fore The proceedings of the Third International Conference at Munich Freising on the History of Christianity in the Non Western World seek to respond to the growing importance of Africa in the context of World Christianity Prominent scholars from Africa and Europe deal with the manifold manifestations of African Christianity in the 20th century and the various ways in which African and Christian identities were formulated and interacted with each other The negotiation of the local and the global in the process of forming African churches is discussed as is the question of the impact of internal African debates and developments on global ecumenical discussions From the table of contents 16 contributions O U Kalu A Trail of Ferment in African Christianity Ethiopianism Prophetism Pentecostalism K Ward African identities in the historic Mainline Churches A case study of the negotiation of local and global within African Anglicanism A Anderson African Independent Churches and Global Pentecostalism Historical Connections and Common Identities E Kamphausen African Cry Anmerkungen zur Entstehungsgeschichte einer kontextuellen Befreiungstheologie in Afrika A Adamavi Aho Ekue Troubled but not destroyed The development of African Theologies and the paradigm of the Theology of reconstruction K Hock Appropriated Vibrancy Immediacy as a Formative Element in African Theologies Religions East and West Ward J. Fellows, 1979

Scripture in the World Religions Harold G. Coward, 2000-08 In this systematic and accessible analysis Harold Coward carefully explores the scriptures written and spoken of six major world faiths He examines their interpretation their role in devotion and education and their relationships with each other Scripturalizing the Human Vincent L. Wimbush, 2015-07-16 Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho cultural and socio political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self illumination and self analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social cultural phenomena and dynamics Anthology of Asian Scriptures Robert E. Van Voorst, 2001 This reader contains some of the most notable and instructive scriptures of the major Asian religions Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Confucianism Taoism Shinto and Zoroastrianism It is a comprehensive and pedagogically sound presentation of the sacred literature of the Asia A clear and consistent organization makes the text easy to use and understand The first chapter examines the general phenomenon of scripture in the world's religions its nature use and place in modern scholarship Chapter 1 also introduces the reader to the art of reading scripture with practical suggestions a pronunciation guide for foreign words and other pedagogical aids Each subsequent chapter presents the scripture of a single religion Three or four vignettes about scripture and its usage open the chapter to draw the reader's interest and imagination Then an introduction sets the context by explaining the overall structure origin development and use of the scripture in its religion

Discourse in Dialogue Pat F. Rossi, 2014-07-24 Discourse in Dialogue Reflections in Fundamental Philosophical Theology is a project which considers fundamental theological and philosophical perspectives in Catholic Christian theology This project adumbrates a number of specifically intellectual themes namely philosophical and theological in character which pertain to the Catholic Christian tradition These themes include a study of the following the interrelationship of philosophy and theology theological method and pluralism the interpretation of scripture and its underlying hermeneutical principles Christian anthropology in relation to philosophy of the human person the Christological mystery and soteriology as well as the nature of Christian Philosophy all of which are representative themes proper to fundamental philosophical theology This work serves as an introductory text to the above cited questions while also providing more specific points of study for those interested in a more comprehensive reflection on contemporary philosophical and theological perspectives

Elenchus of Biblica, 1988 A World Religions Reader Ian S. Markham, Christy Lohr Sapp, 2020-02-10 A comprehensive and accessible textbook which explores the traditions and beliefs of the world's living religions the fully updated and revised new edition The World Religions Reader is an inclusive student friendly examination of the history teaching practices and appeal of the world's major religions Covering both the fundamentals and complexities of each religious tradition this popular textbook brings together significant texts from scriptures and scholars as well as writings from philosophers and other significant thinkers throughout history Students are provided with an introduction and overview of the tradition taken through its primary texts and presented with a text which seeks to persuade the student of the tradition's merits This new edition has been thoroughly updated to be even more accessible for students new to interreligious engagement and to reflect current trends and developments in religions worldwide Every chapter opens with a substantial overview which orients the new student and then flows into a carefully chosen set of texts a regular textbook is now combined with a Reader New content examines areas such as the Rastafarian tradition while revised chapters cover secular humanism and indigenous and emerging religious traditions The methodology of the book focuses on an empathetic approach representing each tradition from the perspective of a conventional adherent enabling students to develop understanding of each tradition and appreciate similarities and differences in their most typical forms Invites students to study each tradition from the perspective of a follower aiming to understand why the tradition is popular and powerful Explores representative passages world views rituals and institutions ethical expressions and modern outlooks for each religion Features discussions of interfaith perspectives on the role of women in religious traditions and the impact of world events and politics on interfaith communication Encourages students to consider questions of truth the relation of religion and society and the changing nature of a tradition in the modern world Includes a complete set of pedagogical tools and instructor resources including end of chapter fact sheets topic summaries key term sections and essay and discussion questions The World Religions Reader Fourth Edition is an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in religion especially for liberal arts and non affiliated colleges as well as general readers wishing to increase their knowledge of the world s religious traditions
