When X Equals Marylou:

The Playing Field Paul Vermeersch, Zaffi Gousopoulos, 2001 Collected short fiction and poetry from national award winning writers leaders in new fiction and up and coming authors who have read at the I V lounge in Toronto When X Equals Marylou Tamas Dobozy, 2002 A collection of stories a kind of beguiling miscellany with each story opening another door Tropes and Territories Marta Dvorak, W.H. New, 2007-10-26 Tropes and Territories demonstrates how current debates in postcolonial criticism bear on the reading writing and status of short fiction These debates which hinge on competing definitions of trope motif vs rhetorical turn and territory political or aesthetic lead to studies of space place influence and writing and reading practices across cultural divides The essays also explore the character of diasporic writing the cultural significance of oral tale telling and interconnections between socio political issues and strategies of style A History of Canadian Literature William H. New, William Herbert New, 2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 The Malahat Review ,2003 The Southern Review ,2012 The Age of Cities Brett Josef Grubisic, 2006 Finalist City of Vancouver Book Award Winston closed his eyes with relief He heard muffled pulses of party noise but still felt damp and uncomfortable His brain had turned haywire At the mirror over the sink he was relieved to find his everyday face and no tell tale outward sign febrile flush scarlet ears Mr Hyde eyes He bent to the sink both mirror and basin were too low as though the bathroom had been built for children or with grief shrunk Eastern European widows in mind and splashed his face with cold water Equal parts Bildungsroman and purported literary artifact The Age of Cities is really about the age of innocence A manuscript is discovered inside a hollowed out home economics textbook from the 1950s the story of a male librarian from a small town who comes to the big city at the height of the Cold War in 1959 At first he is giddy with the discovery of an urban paradise allowing him to reinvent himself at the same time as the city is But his accidental discovery of a gay subculture culminating in a feverish dream like initiation pushes him irrevocably towards crisis Written in the dialect of the time and framed by contemporary analysis The Age of Cities is an imaginary artifact that is about the past and present all at once a novel of ambiguous boundaries and invasive dichotomies It is also about discovery loss and the ages old closet where stories lie hidden from view

The I.V. Lounge Reader Paul Vermeersch, 2001 Since May 1998 book lovers have gathered in a small inconspicuous cafe across from the Art Gallery of Ontario in Toronto to hear some of Canada's best writers read from their latest works From national award winning poets such as Dennis Lee and David Donnell to the leading writers of new fiction such as Lynn Crosbie and Derek McCormack to first time authors and local favourites the I V Lounge Reading Series has provided an intimate space for members of the literary community to share their craft with the public This anthology offers samples of the best and most memorable readings of the past two years including fiction and poetry never before published Each entry captures the spirit of the I V Lounge Reading Series
