Small Groups John M. Levine, Richard L. Moreland, 2008-02-19 Research on small groups is highly diverse because investigators who study such groups vary in their disciplinary identifications theoretical interests and methodological preferences The goal of this volume is to capture that diversity and thereby convey the breadth and excitement of small group research by acquainting students with work on five fundamental aspects of groups The volume also includes an introductory chapter by the editors which provides an overview of the history of and current state of the art in the field Together with introductions to each section discussion questions and suggestions for further reading make the volume ideal reading for senior undergraduate and graduate students interested in group dynamics The Contemporary Reader of Gender and Fat Studies Amy Erdman Farrell, 2023-06-28 The Contemporary Reader of Gender and Fat Studies is a key reference work in contemporary scholarship situated at the intersection between Gender and Fat Studies charting the connections and tensions between these two fields Comprising over 20 chapters from a range of diverse and international contributors the Reader is structured around the following key themes theorizing gender and fat narrating gender and fat historicizing gender and fat institutions and public policy health and medicine popular culture and media and resistance It is an intersectional collection highlighting the ways that gender and fat always exist in connection with multiple other structures forms of oppression and identities including race ethnicity sexualities age nationalities disabilities religion and class The Contemporary Reader of Gender and Fat Studies is essential reading for scholars and advanced students in Gender Studies Sexuality Studies Sociology Body Studies Cultural Studies Psychology and Health The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Who's who in Venture Capital Aaron David Silver, 1984 5000 Sheet Steel Products & who Make Them Sheet Steel Trade Extension Committee, 1927 Representative Men of Connecticut, 1861-1894 William F.
