Children's Literature is the first volume of its kind to focus on the underserved regions of the world. With particular focus on Asia, Africa, and Latin America, the collection raises awareness of children's literature and related media as they exist in large regions of the world to which mainstream European and North American scholarship pays very little attention. Sections cover Concepts and theories, Historical contexts and national identity, Cultural forms and children's texts, Traditional story and adaptation, Picture books across the majority world, Trends in children's and young adult literatures, Exposition of the literary cultural and historical contexts in which children's literature is produced together with an exploration of intersections between these literatures and more extensively researched areas. This will enhance access and understanding for a large range of international readers. The essays offer an ideal introduction for those newly approaching literature for children in specific areas looking for new insights and interdisciplinary perspectives or interested in directions for future scholarship.

Fairy Tale Films Pauline Greenhill, Sidney Eve Matrix, 2010-08-06. To set the field, fairy tales are traditional or literary fictional narratives that combine human and non-human protagonists with elements of wonder and the supernatural. Scholars of literature and film explore how such narratives manifest in film, either native to it or changelings from written literature or oral tradition. Among the topics are the commodification of childhood in contemporary fairy tale film, Guillermo del Toro's Pan's Labyrinth, El Laberinto del Fauno, and neomagic realism, feminism and place in The Juniper Tree, patriarchal backlash and nostalgia in Disney's Enchanted, feminist cultural pedagogy in Angela Carter and Neil Jordan's The Company of Wolves, and a secret midnight ball and a magic cloak in Stanley Kubrick's Eyes Wide Shut.
