Readers Choice Cli Fi Novel:

Teaching Climate Change to Adolescents Richard Beach, Jeff Share, Allen Webb, 2017-05-25 THE essential resource for middle and high school English language arts teachers to help their students understand and address the urgent issues and challenges facing life on Earth today this text features classroom activities written and used by teachers and a website <http://climatechangeela.pbworks.com> with additional information and links All royalties from the sale of this book are donated to Alliance for Climate Education <https://acespace.org> Cli-Fi and Class Debra J. Rosenthal, Jason de Lara

Molesky, 2023-10-09 Since its emergence in the late twentieth century climate fiction or cli fi has concerned itself as much with economic injustice and popular revolt as with rising seas and soaring temperatures Indeed with its insistent focus on redressing social disparities cli fi might reasonably be classified as a form of protest literature As environmental crises escalate and inequality intensifies literary writers and scholars alike have increasingly scrutinized the dual exploitations of the earth's ecosystems and the socioeconomically disadvantaged Cli Fi and Class focuses on the representation of class dynamics in climate change narratives With fifteen essays on the intersection of the economic and the ecological addressing works ranging from the novels of Joseph Conrad Cormac McCarthy and Octavia Butler to the film Black Panther and the Broadway musical Hadestown this collection unpacks the complex ways economic exploitation impacts planetary well being and the ways climatic change shapes those inequities in turn Teaching the Literature of Climate Change Debra J. Rosenthal, 2024-04-26 Over the past several decades writers such as Margaret Atwood Paolo Bacigalupi Octavia E Butler and Kathy Acker have explored climate change through literature reflecting current anxieties about humans impact on the planet Emphasizing the importance of interdisciplinarity this volume embraces literature as a means to cultivate students understanding of the ongoing climate crisis ethics in times of disaster and the intrinsic intersectionality of environmental issues Contributors discuss speculative climate futures the Anthropocene postcolonialism climate anxiety and the usefulness of storytelling in engaging with catastrophe The essays offer approaches to teaching interdisciplinary and cross listed courses including strategies for team teaching across disciplines and for building connections between humanities majors and STEM majors The volume concludes with essays that explore ways to address grief and to contemplate a hopeful future in the face of apocalyptic predictions The Sea in the Literary Imagination Ekaterina V. Kobeleva, Ben P.

Robertson, Shannon W. Thompson, 2019-01-03 This collection explores nautical themes in a variety of literary contexts from multiple cultures Including contributors from five continents it emphasizes the universality of human experience with the sea while focusing on literature that spans a millennium stretching from medieval romance to the twenty first century reimagining of classic literary texts in film These fresh essays engage in discussions of literature from the UK the USA India Chile Turkey Spain Japan Colombia and the Caribbean Scholars of maritime literature will find the collection interesting for the unique insights it offers on individual literary texts while general readers will be intrigued by the interconnectedness that it reveals in human experience with the sea Visions of the Wasteland in "Maze Runner".
