Threshold Poetics:

Threshold Poetics Susannah B. Mintz, 2003 Threshold Poetics Milton and Intersubjectivity is a study of the challenge intersubjective experience poses to doctrinal formulations of difference Focusing on Paradise Lost and Samson Agonistes and using feminist and relational psychoanalytic theory the project examines representations of looking working eating conversing and touching to argue that encounters between selves in threshold space dismantle the binary oppositions that support categorical thinking A key term throughout the study is recognition defined as the capacity to tolerate both sameness and difference between separate selves Recognition of likeness in difference thus undermines the exclusionary logic of patriarchal and political hierarchies Both Eve and Dalila demonstrate the ability to respect the borders of the other while seeking out similarity but where Paradise Lost depicts the eventual achievements of intersubjective understanding between Adam and Eve after the fall Samson Agonistes records its failure when Samson maintaining the boundaries of difference refuses Dalila's effort to make contact

Thinking on Thresholds Subha Mukherji, 2011 Through a combination of case studies and theoretical investigations the essays in this book address the imaginative power of the threshold as a productive space in literature and art

Decadent Threshold Poetics Jessica Gosling, 2018

Poetics of Deconstruction Lynn Turner, 2020-10-15 In Poetics of Deconstruction Lynn Turner develops an intimate attention to independent films art and the psychoanalyses by which they might make sense other than under continued license of the subject that calls himself man Drawing extensively from Jacques Derrida's philosophy in precise dialogue with feminist thought animal studies and posthumanism this book explores the vulnerability of the living as rooted in non oppositional differences From abjection to mourning to the speculative and the performative it reposes concepts and buzzwords seemingly at home in feminist theory visual culture and the humanities more broadly Stepping away from the carnal phallogocentric legacies of the signifier and the dialectic Poetics of Deconstruction asks you to welcome nonpower into politics always sexual but no longer anchored in sacrifice

Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story s confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story The Pace of Modernity O. Bradley Bassler,2012 Wittgenstein said that philosophers should greet each other not by saying Hello but rather Take your time But what is time Time is money but this points to an even better answer to this basic question for our modern epoch time is acceleration In a cultural system which stresses economic efficiency the quicker route is always the more prized if not always the better one Wittgenstein s dictum thus constitutes an act of rebellion against the dominant vector of our culture but as such it threatens to become quickly anti modern We need an approach to reading our information rich culture which is not reactionary but rather meets its accelerated condition In this book O Bradley Bassler develops a toolkit for acute reading of our modern pace not through withdrawal but rather through active engagement with a broad range of disciplines The main characters in this drama comprise a cast of master readers Hannah Arendt Jean Starobinski Harold Bloom Angus Fletcher Hans Blumenberg and John Ashbery with secondary figures drawn from the readers and critics whom this central group suggests We must develop a vocabulary of pacing reflecting our modern distance from classical sources and the concomitant acceleration of our contemporary condition Only in this way can we begin to situate the phenomenon of modernity within the larger scales of human culture and history Acta Conventus Neo-Latini Monasteriensis ,2015-02-24 Since 1971 the International Congress for Neo Latin Studies has been organised every three years in various cities in Europe and North America In August 2012 M nster in Germany was the venue of the fifteenth Neo Latin conference held by the International Association for Neo Latin Studies The proceedings of the M nster conference have been collected in this volume under the motto Litterae neolatinae sedes et quasi domicilia rerum religiosarum et politicarum Religion and Politics in Neo Latin Literature Forty five individual and five plenary papers spanning the period from the Renaissance to the present offer a variety of themes covering a range of genres such as history literature philology art history and religion The contributions will be of relevance not only for scholarly readers but also for an interested non professional audience A Handbook of Poetics, for Students of English Verse Francis Barton Gummere,1885 Threshold Cartographies Laura Grace Ford,2021 Affect, Psychoanalysis, and American Poetry John Steen,2020-01-23 Poetry has often been defined by its closure its condensation of meaning and value into discrete self referential textual objects Affect Psychoanalysis and American Poetry challenges the dominant metaphor of poetic containers by turning to recent poetic texts that represent the contagious and uncontainable feelings of anxiety grief shame and rage From modernists Wallace Stevens to mid century poets Randall Jarrell Robert Creeley and Ted Berrigan and finally to contemporary practitioners Aaron Kunin and Claudia Rankine John Steen argues that new poetic techniques arise from the poetic productivity of negative affects and that a new model of poetic value can be found in poems that are instead of containers permeable social spaces of intimacy attachment and withdrawal Drawing from object relations psychoanalysis queer theory and affect theory Affect Psychoanalysis and American Poetry finds poetry's singularity in its unique capacity to represent anew the transmissible relational and uncontainable valences of feeling that structure and destabilize social life An Analysis of Recent Work on Nibelungenlied Poetics Christopher M. Sperberg-Mac Queen, 1985 Essays in Poetics, 1991 A Handbook of Poetics Francis Barton Gummere, 1888 The Art of the Threshold Joan Wry, 2010 Thresholds Albert Cook, 1985 English Romantic Poets Harold Bloom, 1986 A collection of critical essays on the work of the Romantic poets Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Shelley and Keats

Rosario Castellanos' Feminist Poetics Norma Alarcón, 1983 Threshold, 1982 Writing on Thresholds: An Australian Postcolonial Poetics & The Blue Archway Molly Murn, 2022 This thesis develops a threshold poetics methodology through a reading of aesthetic and material thresholds in contemporary Australian poetry It considers the works of my case study poets Yankunytjatjara Kokatha poet Ali Cobby Eckermann Iranian Australian poet Ali Alizadeh and Australian poet Andy Jackson It addresses how both the poetry and the poets themselves inhabit the threshold as an in-between place where a transformation bodily linguistically culturally spatially can occur revitalising what Philip Mead calls the networked language 2008 of contemporary Australian poetry This kind of understanding sees poetic language networked to the culture and history in which it is formed and allows room for a polyphony of voices migrant settler Indigenous exiled and bodily different The thesis discovers the threshold as a productive or generative space one that acknowledges and embodies the unsettlement of contemporary Australian postcolonial poetry and poetics The creative component of the thesis is a full length poetry collection The Blue Archway in which I address the notion of the threshold as an imaginative sensorial figurative and material site for creative investigation The work of Cobby Eckermann Jackson and Alizadeh has influenced and affected my approach to composition or poesis in different ways Their work serves as a provocation to me or Barthes punctum 1979 2000 prompting a series of associations questions impressions memories calls and responses The poems in the collection encounter the threshold in various ways as rite of passage synthesis meeting place locus of transformation and site of crossover in nature such as the shoreline or where the river meets the sea They enter dialogue with other poets and artists whose works encounter the threshold including but not limited to the works of Cobby Eckermann Jackson and Alizadeh The exegesis and poetry collection together consider unsettlement ekphrasis and collaboration as practices of threshold poetics and formulate a statement of threshold poetics

Embracing the Track of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Threshold Poetics

In a global consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony created by the written word frequently disappear into the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Threshold Poetics a wonderful literary value overflowing with fresh emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful musician of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts viewers on an emotional trip, well unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this moving examination, we will explore the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
