Race and Groupwork Tara Mistry,Allan G. Brown,1997 Groupwork literature and practice theory is largely eurocentric The issues facing black groupworkers and the groupwork needs of service users from minority communities are inadequately addressed in available material In some countries anti racist and race equality perspectives are now under attack Race and Groupwork provides a coherent overview of its subject The Editors have included innovative material by front line practitioners working with black and multiracial groups as well as articles on the theoretical and philosophical principals raised Several articles reflect on some of the inhibiting and oppressive organisational factors which can hamper this important work and suggest approaches which might enable more facilitative policies

A Handbook of Common Groupwork Problems Tom Douglas,1991 A practical self help programme for groupworkers which tackles issues and problems encountered in everyday practice Emphasis is placed on devising strategies and monitoring their effects particularly for the many groupworkers who have no access to supervision or consultation
