Post Apocalyptic Story Case Studies:

Post-Apocalyptic Patriarchy Carlen Lavigne, 2018-09-26 Twenty first century American television series such as Revolution Falling Skies The Last Ship and The Walking Dead have depicted a variety of doomsday scenarios nuclear cataclysm rogue artificial intelligence pandemic alien invasion or zombie uprising These scenarios speak to longstanding societal anxieties and contemporary calamities like 9 11 or the avian flu epidemic Questions about post apocalyptic television abound whose voices are represented What tomorrows are they most afraid of What does this tell us about the world we live in today The author analyzes these speculative futures in terms of gender race and sexuality revealing the fears and ambitions of a patriarchy in flux as exemplified by the return to a mythical American frontier where the white male hero fights for survival protects his family and crafts a new world order based on the old

Apocalypse in Australian Fiction and Film Roslyn Weaver, 2014-01-10 Australia has been a frequent choice of location for narratives about the end of the world in science fiction and speculative works ranging from pre colonial apocalyptic maps to key literary works from the last fifty years This critical work explores the role of Australia in both apocalyptic literature and film Works and genres covered include Nevil Shute s popular novel On the Beach Mad Max children s literature Indigenous writing and cyberpunk The text examines ways in which apocalypse is used to undermine complacency foretell environmental disasters critique colonization and to serve as a means of protest for minority groups Australian apocalypse imagines Australia at the ends of the world geographically and psychologically but also proposes spaces of hope for the future

The Transformative Power of Literature and Narrative: Promoting Positive Change Corinna Assmann, Jan Rupp, Christine Schwanecke, 2023-01-16 Narrative plays a central role for individual and collective lives this insight has arguably only grown at a time of multiple social and cultural challenges in the 21st century The present volume aims to actualize and further substantiate the case for literature and narrative taking inspiration from Vera N nning s eminent scholarship over the past decades Engaging with her formative interdisciplinary work the volume seeks to explore potentials of change through the transformative power of literature and narrative to be harnessed by individuals and groups as agents of positive change in today s world The book is located at the intersection of cognitive and cultural narratology and is concerned with the way literature affects individuals how it works at an intersubjective level enabling communication and community and how it furthers social and cultural change

Narrating the Mesh Marco Caracciolo, 2021-02-26 A hierarchical model of human societies relations with the natural world is at the root of today s climate crisis Narrating the Mesh contends that narrative form is instrumental in countering this ideology Drawing inspiration from Timothy Morton s concept of the mesh as a metaphor for the human nonhuman relationship in the face of climate change Marco Caracciolo investigates how narratives in genres such as the novel and the short story employ formal devices to effectively channel the entanglement of human communities and nonhuman phenomena How can narrative undermine linearity in order to reject notions of unlimited technological progress and economic growth What does it mean to say that nonhuman materials and processes from contaminated landscapes to natural evolution can become characters in stories And conversely how can narrative trace the rising awareness of climate change in the thick of human characters mental activities These are some of the questions Narrating the Mesh addresses by engaging with contemporary works by Ted Chiang Emily St John Mandel Richard Powers Jeff VanderMeer Jeanette Winterson and many others Entering interdisciplinary debates on narrative and the Anthropocene this book explores how stories can bridge the gap between scientific models of the climate and the human scale world of everyday experience powerfully illustrating the complexity of the ecological crisis at multiple levels

Anglophone Literature and the Fight Against Climate Change Matthias Stephan, 2026-01-22 Providing a methodology for identifying literary narratives of climate change this book draws on historical narrative strategies and analysis of the current popular trends to assess the effectiveness of literary narratives on global issues

Science Fiction and Contemporary British Theatre Ian Farnell, 2025-07-24 Analysing an expanding body of theatre and performance works Science Fiction and Contemporary British Theatre examines how the themes and images of science fiction are enabling practitioners to intervene on the most urgent social and political issues of the present moment By exploring the genre s impact on the live theatrical event the book presents an original and topical interrogation of issues that remain at the heart of the national and global political agenda including military conflict social injustice economic inequality migration nationhood anti democratic populism and climate collapse The author draws upon a wide range of dramatic forms from critically acclaimed plays by writers such as Alistair McDowall Caryl Churchill Dawn King Anne Washburn and Ella Road to devised work site specific performance Shakespearean drama and physical theatre The book s chapters are based on some of the genre s most resonant images including post apocalyptic wildernesses dystopian regimes and artificial lifeforms Furthermore by placing examples in dialogue with a range of theories and scholars this book constructs an innovative interdisciplinary framework comprised of theatre studies sociology philosophy economic and political science Providing an engagingly written intellectually rich and uniquely compelling analysis Science Fiction and Contemporary British Theatre charts a new and growing landscape of scholarly research and establishes science fiction as an exciting expanding and urgent dramatic and political practice
