Work in Progress Dr. Abbie Maroño, 2024-07-09 In Work in Progress Dr. Abbie Maroño debunks the pervasive myth that shame is the antithesis of empowerment revealing how if understood and embraced it can guide us towards our most authentic selves. Popular media often offers individuals empty promises of empowerment urging them to become bulletproof. It also portrays shame as the antithesis of empowerment. Yet in reality shame signals when one's actions don't align with their ideal self. By dismissing this signal they hinder their journey to becoming their best selves. True empowerment arises when one cultivates a healthy relationship with shame. Work in Progress delves into the science of shame and empowerment equipping people to navigate their feelings of shame and transition into a state of empowerment. While many books on empowerment are well intentioned they often overlook or misinterpret the science behind individuals experiences of shame how they reconcile their self perception with their surroundings and how they achieve empowerment amidst its elusive definition. This work challenges the idea that empowerment is exclusively a feminist concept reserved for women. It underscores that empowerment is universal accessible to all no matter who they are.

Cultivating Mindfulness in Clinical Social Work Terry B. Northcut, 2017-03-25 This practice focused resource integrates broad therapeutic knowledge with current neuroscience to present vast possibilities for mindfulness in clinical social work. Seasoned practitioners posit mindfulness practice and process as a significant bridge between taking care of self and taking care of others demonstrating its implications for physical and mental health in personal and professional contexts Case studies show timeless concepts e.g acceptance and new mindfulness based ideas e.g learned helpfulness in use in individual treatment as well as couples counseling and group interventions Also attesting to the utility of mindfulness across problems settings and practitioner orientations diverse applications are organized along ten robust lenses among them Beginning with the context the mind body conundrum Beginning with the body the neurobiology of mindfulness Beginning with the training training clinicians in essential methods for integrating mindfulness in clinical practice Beginning with the clients mindfully reconciling opposites with survivors of trauma complex traumatic stress disorders Beginning with the symptom incorporating mindfulness in the treatment of substance misuse Beginning with the larger social system mindfulness and restorative justice Clinicians and research professionals particularly interested in psychotherapy treatment and mindfulness practice will find Cultivating Mindfulness in Clinical Social Work not only stimulating and intriguing but also a fresh source of real world wisdom
