Christensen s H xan The Witch 1922 stands as a singular film within the history of cinema Deftly weaving contemporary scientific analysis and powerfully staged historical scenes of satanic initiation confession under torture possession and persecution H xan creatively blends spectacle and argument to provoke a humanist re evaluation of witchcraft in European history as well as the contemporary treatment of female hysterics and the mentally ill In Realizing the Witch Baxstrom and Meyers show how H xan opens a window onto wider debates in the 1920s regarding the relationship of film to scientific evidence the evolving study of religion from historical and anthropological perspectives and the complex relations between popular culture artistic expression and concepts in medicine and psychology H xan is a film that travels along the winding path of art and science rather than between the narrow division of documentary and fiction Baxstrom and Meyers reveal how Christensen s attempt to tame the irrationality of the witch risked validating the very nonsense that such an effort sought to master and dispel H xan is a notorious genre bending excessive cinematic account of the witch in early modern Europe Realizing the Witch not only illustrates the underrated importance of the film within the canons of classic cinema it lays bare the relation of the invisible to that which we cannot prove but nevertheless know to be there Journal of Ancient Civilizations ,2003 Studying Societies and Cultures Lawrence A. achieved through a toxic imagination attributed to women a trait that historically referred to the power of women to negatively affect others including their own children in the womb with only the use of their imagination This process reflects the misogynist and racist world in which we live where female bodies people of color and alternative identities represent a threat to patriarchal power Monsters vs Patriarchy examines female monstrosity as it appears in horror films from around the world and considers specific political scientific and historical contexts to better understand how we construct and reconstruct monstrosity using an intersectional approach to examine the imposition of gender and racial hierarchies that support national power structures The authors contend that monstrous female cinematic subjects including ghosts witches cannibals and posthuman beings are becoming empowered using the tools of their monstrification to smash the colonial white supremacist and misogynist structures that created them Ten Years of Triumph of the Moon Dave Evans, Dave Green, 2009 A selection of worldwide scholars with nearly two centuries of hands on pagan research experience among them presents a collection of researches inspired by deriving from or just celebrating the immense impact of Hutton s Triumph of the Moon A History of Modern Pagan Witchcraft AIDS Legal Bibliography, 1991 Encyclopedia of Reincarnation and Karma Norman C.
