

Features of Narrative Writing

Stories usually have the following features:

Characters

The characters are the people in a story.
What is going to happen to them?

Settings

The setting tells us when and where the story takes place.

Plot

The plot tells us what happens in the story (and the order that it happens in).

Opening

The start of the story.
The opening should catch the readers' attention and make them want to carry on reading!

Middle

The events in the middle of the story might include

- a build-up to a problem,
- the problem itself,
- and how it is resolved.

Ending

This explains what happens to the characters next and describes what they have learned.
