Writing Program Administrator As Researcher Inquiry In Action And Reflection:

The Writing Program Administrator as Researcher Shirley K. Rose, Irwin Weiser, 1999 This collection of essays discusses writing program administrators WPA's research. The essays pose several questions to characterize WPA's research practices: What is WPA research? What characterizes WPA research and the sites of WPA inquiry? and What values guide WPA research? The 14 chapters are divided into 2 parts: Writing Program Administrators Inquiry in Action and Writing Program Administrators Inquiry in Reflection. Part 1 exemplifies WPA research by describing and conceptualizing specific research projects conducted as part of WPA responsibilities and thereby provides a detailed picture of administrative research. Part 2 then draws on the concrete experiences of particular WPA's and particular writing programs raising and reflecting on issues about WPA research in general. Each chapter demonstrates that WPA's inquiry is characterized by a recursive interplay between reflection and action. Some of the many topics addressed in the book include diverse research methodologies for diverse audiences, feminist methods, conflicts between teaching and assessing writing outcomes, assessment research as a teaching tool, the contributions of sociolinguistic profiling, assessing teacher preparation programs, reflective essays, local research and curriculum development, enabling research in the writing program, archives, WPA's as historians, historical work on WPA's, the role of research in writing programs, and postmodern mapping. The Writing Program Administrator as Theorist Shirley K. Rose, Irwin Weiser, 2002 The work of Writing Program Administration however overturns that perception for it demands that theory be integrated within everyday decision making

Writing Center Research Paula Gillespie, Alice Gillam, Lady Falls Brown, Byron Stay, 2001-12-01 There are writing centers at almost every college and university in the United States and there is an emerging body of professional discourse research and writing about them. The goal of this book is to open, formalize, and further the dialogue about research in and about writing centers. The original essays in this volume all written by writing center researchers directly address current concerns in several ways: they encourage studies, data collection, and publication by offering detailed reflective accounts of research; they encourage a diversity of approaches by demonstrating a range of methodologies e.g. ethnography, longitudinal case study, rhetorical analysis, teacher research available to both veteran and novice writing center professionals; they advance an ongoing conversation about writing center research by explicitly addressing epistemological and ethical issues. The book aims to encourage and guide other researchers while at the same time offering new knowledge that has resulted from the studies it analyzes

The WPA Outcomes Statement—A Decade Later Nicholas N. Behm, Gregory R. Glau, 2014-09-12 The WPA Outcomes Statement: A Decade Later examines the ways that the Council of Writing Program Administrators Outcomes Statement for First Year Composition has informed curricula, generated programmatic, institutional, and disciplinary change, and affected a disciplinary understanding of best practices in first year composition

Feeling Our Way Wendy Bishop,Deborah Coxwell Teague,2004-03 This provocative and sometimes humorous collection of essays writtenbycollege writing teachersforcollege writing teachers explores seldom discussed issues to help TAs develop confidence in overcoming classroom challenges Teachers both seasoned and new to the profession create a dialogue by sharing their rich and varied experiences and responses to classroom and department situations Each Part presents 4 to 7 short essays by Adjuncts and TAs focusing on their experiences and lessons learned At the end of each Part more experienced teachers respond to the ideas generated in the preceding essays and add their own advice concerns and solutions Part 1 Approaching the Classroomcenters on entering a new writing program and succeeding as a foreign born writing teacher Part 2 Inside Outfocuses on gaining confidence as a teacher and managing sexual politics and power struggles in the classroom Part 3 Beyond the Classroomhelps readers question the teaching profession and offers advice on surviving department politics An Appendix provides a useful listing of composition texts that offer further helpful advice

Field Of Dreams Peggy O'Neill,Angela Crow,Larry W. Burton,2002-06 Further chapters respond to these with critique and reflection on labor issues promotion and tenure institutional politics and disciplinary questions A promising read for department and writing program administrators as well as for general compositonists A Field of Dreams looks closely at particular independent writing programs and situates them broadly in the current scene of composition scholarship administration English studies and the university Jacket

Works and Days ,2003 Don't Call it that Sidney I. Dobrin,2005 This volume addresses the role of the English professor in teaching graduate students in the how to teach writing introductory courses The essays argue that far from a simple introduction about how to teach writing the courses often serve as an introduction to composition theory to research methodologies to pedagogical theory and to the histories of composition studies as a discipline
