Languages and Literacies as Mobile and Placed Resources Sue Nichols, Collette Snowden, 2016-10-04 Languages and Literacies as Mobile and Placed Resources explores how languages and literacies are implicated in the complex relationship between place and mobility. It is a book that represents the next wave in literacy studies in which theories of mobility, networking, and globalisation have emerged to account for the dynamic landscape of globally circulating communication resources. Authors in this volume take up a more complex way of thinking about resources, applying it to consider languages and literacies as assemblages or as parts of assemblages that are involved in learning, teaching, and meaning-making. The book addresses forms of text and mobility that arise in contexts outside of formal education, including marketing, charity, journalism, community organisation, and parenting. It also addresses school contexts and higher education settings. Key topics explored include: Consequences of workplace confinement; Literacies as placed resources in the context of rural communities; Literacy sustainability and landscapes for learning; Documenting networked knowledge on tablets; Mobilising literacy policy through resources; Global Englishes as placed resources; Languages as contextualised resources; Shaping a digital academic writing resource in a transcultural space. With an international range of carefully chosen contributors, this book is a must-read text for all academics interested in semiotics and literacy studies.

The Writer's Resource Susan Day, Elizabeth McMahan, 1988 Tutoring Second Language Writers Shanti Bruce, Ben Rafoth, 2015-12-12

Tutoring Second Language Writers a complete update of Bruce and Rafoth's 2009 ESL Writers is a guide for writing center tutors that addresses the growing need for tutors who are better prepared to work with the increasingly international population of students seeking guidance at the writing center. Drawing upon philosopher John Dewey's belief in reflective thinking as a way to help build new knowledge, the book is divided into four parts: Part 1: Actions and Identities is about creating a proactive stance toward language difference, thinking critically about labels, and the mixed feelings students may have about learning English. Part 2: Research Opportunities demonstrates writing center research projects and illustrates methods tutors can use to investigate their questions about writing center work. Part 3: Words and Passages offers four personal stories of inquiry and discovery. Part 4: Academic Expectations describes some of the challenges tutors face when they try to help writers meet readers' specific expectations. Advancing the Conversations tutors have with one another and their directors about tutoring second language writers and writing. Tutoring Second Language Writers engages readers with current ideas and issues that highlight the excitement and challenge of working with those who speak English as a second or additional language.
