It offers a broad view covering literary attempts to describe Siam in the 13th century through the formative phase of Western engagement in the 16th century and the various competing European imperialisms in the 19th century to today's era of mass tourism and the global reach of economically and culturally powerful First World populations. Imagining Siam will appeal to those interested in Thailand critiques of travel writing and the Anna Leonowens legacy. After centuries tormented by guilt, Conrad's work saving the innocent finally won him a measure of peace and at least some of the redemption he craves. Now respected by his peers, he lives in Bangkok and carries on his work protecting those unjustly condemned and who have nowhere else to turn. It is here that he faces his greatest ever challenge: a young woman who survived a horrifying attack as a child and has now become a career criminal. Conrad faces a new and unprecedented challenge. Knowing that Angel was betrayed by her family and believing his Church was responsible for the path her life has taken, he feels obliged to try and save her soul. Yet how does he go about saving somebody who does not want to be saved and redeeming a soul that spurns redemption? Driven by the principle of hating the sin but loving the sinner, Conrad accepts this new challenge and is determined to save Angel's soul if necessary at the cost of his own. Index to the Honolulu Advertiser and Honolulu Star-bulletin, 1987 Business Blunders Geoff Tibballs, 1999.
