The Slammer Kevin Marron,1996 Topics covered include drug abuse prison overcrowding native offenders and female offenders

Comparing Prison Systems Nigel South,Robert P. Weiss,2014-01-02 This book provides in depth original and critical analyses by leading scholars of the penal systems of 16 nations around the world focusing on changes in social structure culture and punishment since 1975 Contributors provide an international and comparative context in which to understand the impact of recent profound economic social and political changes on penal theory and practice

Behind the Walls Michael Weinrath,2016-11-01 In this system you can t trust anybody Like even on the streets I ve never trusted my own brother But now in Ni Miikana I m starting to get that trust back You just gotta be careful what you say in here and you ll be all right Despite falling crime rates more rights for inmates and better training for correctional officers Canada s prison population is on the rise and outbreaks of violence continue to grab headlines Applying Erving Goffman s frame theory and drawing on interviews with inmates and correctional officers in federal and provincial institutions Michael Weinrath assesses whether improvements over the past twenty five years have truly led to better corrections Behind the Walls offers an unprecedented look at life in contemporary prisons Inmates and staff describe their transition to prison life and corrections work and they explain how they frame or understand their roles and how they relate to others They provide commentaries on key developments and problems including the experiences of female correctional officers in male prisons boundary violations by correctional officers the introduction of behavioural programs and the rise of prison gangs Weinrath s balanced assessment reveals that although prisons have seen improvements they continue to be plagued by problems that prevent inmates from forging positive relationships among themselves and with correctional officers

Corrections in Canada John Winterdyk,2001 Aimed at introductory courses dealing with corrections or penology in university criminology and criminal justice programs and in college programs in law enforcement corrections and criminal justice A contributed volume written by individuals who have both academic and practical knowledge of their subject area this text provides a balanced review and analysis of penological works and demonstrates various critical approaches Its currency Canadian content accessibility and learning aids will stimulate discussions and encourage readers to explore issues that are beyond the scope of the text and will facilitate an understanding and appreciation for the complex and dynamic nature of corrections in Canada

Women and the Criminal Justice System Katherine S. Van Wormer,Clemens Bartollas,2007 This text examines the various roles of women in the criminal justice system against a social context in which women are oppressed The text examines the following three roles of women in criminal justice Women as victims of crimes Women as criminals convicted and sentenced for crimes Women as workers in various agencies in the criminal justice system This text emphasizes content on gender and ethnic diversity and on the strengths of oppressed people especially women of color A wide range of issues are covered including the rate of early childhood sexual abuse victimization in female inmates priest abuse of girls female inmate rape by male prison guard and obstacles for women lawyers achieving partnerships in their firms The authors provide a wealth of recent data drawn from both domestic and international human rights sources as well as from personal interviews The final portion of the text describes women s setbacks in entering the traditionally male dominated fields of policing the law and corrections if people are given half a chance they can draw on their own resources to heal from the past and build for the future This empowerment approach is already prominent in the social work field and widely used in victim treatment programs for working with female offenders
