Legendary editor Judith Jones the woman behind some of the most important authors of the 20th century including Julia Child Anne Frank Edna Lewis John Updike and Sylvia Plath finally gets her due in this surprising granular luminous and path breaking biography Edward Hirsch author of How to Read a Poem At Doubleday's Paris office in 1949 twenty five year old Judith Jones spent most of her time wading through manuscripts in the slush pile and passing on projects until one day a book caught her eye She read it in one sitting then begged her boss to consider publishing it A year later Anne Frank's The Diary of a Young Girl became a bestseller It was the start of a culture defining career in publishing During her more than fifty years as an editor at Alfred A Knopf Jones nurtured the careers of literary icons such as Sylvia Plath Anne Tyler and John Updike and helped launch new genres and trends in literature At the forefront of the cookbook revolution she published the who's who of food writing Edna Lewis M F K Fisher Claudia Roden Madhur Jaffrey James Beard and most famously Julia Child Through her tenacious work behind the scenes Jones helped turn these authors into household names changing cultural mores and expectations along the way Judith's work spanned decades of America's most dramatic cultural change from the end of World War II through the civil rights movement and the fight for women's equality and the books she published acted as tools of quiet resistance Now based on exclusive interviews never before seen personal papers and years of research her astonishing career is explored for the first time in this thorough and humanizing portrait Kirkus Reviews

Insect lives, as told by themselves Edward Simpson (naturalist.), 1898 The Temporal Horizon Karin Linton, 1989

This dissertation studies the theme of time in Anne Tyler's fiction and centres specifically on how Jeremy Pauling in Celestial Navigation Justine Peck in Searching for Caleb Cody Tull in Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant and Macon Leary in The Accidental Tourist respond to the losses brought about by the passage of time The introduction establishes similarities between Tyler's emphasis on change the passage of time and reactions to change and Paul Fraise's focus on temporally organized behaviour the three interrelated perspectives of the past the present and the future The temporal horizon is used in this dissertation as a key to interpreting the temporal awareness of Tyler's characters and their behaviour in adapting to change It is often memories of crises such as unexpected death or desertion which predominate the protagonist's temporal outlook at the expense of the present and the future protagonists is to free themselves from the past and discover a greater significance in the present and the future With the exception of Jeremy Pauling they finally succeed in altering the hold of the past and as a consequence of this shift of vision a better balance between their three temporal perspectives is achieved dissertation indicates that the majority of her protagonists in the end reach a moment of buoyancy when at least temporarily in control of time they apparently trust in the possibility of altering their situations Because of this anticipation they also modify their behaviour and take steps to give their futures a new direction While it may be an open question where the passage of time may lead them the thesis indicates that in many of Anne Tyler s novels the endings seem suggestive of affirmative change
