An Unusual Courtship Antoinette George, 2020-12-18 Compelling romance and swashbuckling thrills. The dramatic and gripping story of one man with two lives and the woman he craves but cannot have. He was the handsome aristocrat and charismatic adventurer who created a dynasty, and she was the feisty, unconventional woman he loved. He was English, and she was French, two strong-willed people determined never to give in to each other, and a devious, diabolical enemy determined to exact revenge on the smuggler who had constantly evaded him and thwarted his nefarious plans. Set at the end of the 18th century when France was on the cusp of a bloodthirsty Revolution, this is an exciting and unputdownable tale of daring escapes, broken promises, distrust, and misunderstandings, all threaded through by a passionate and turbulent love affair, a scorching romance that wouldn't be denied.

Part 2: An Unusual Courtship She'd nearly lost her life but had survived thanks to The Shadow. However, now in London, Marie Catherine de Mornay is bereft, heartbroken, and angry. Her distrust of men has been compounded by the smuggler she'd finally lost her heart to; he'd broken his promises, abandoned her, and for all she knew, he could be dead, given who he was and his profession. She tells herself she has to move on and be practical. That means finding a wealthy husband who will be willing to help support her refugee family. Although an aristocrat by birth, she is a foreigner without a dowry and with only her looks to commend her. Marie Catherine knows her task isn't going to be easy. Also, whether she can find someone she cares about enough to tie herself to for a lifetime, she doubts, but it has to be done. Once again, Marie Catherine is determined to succeed in what she sets out to do and so starts to look for a man she can finally put her trust in, even if she doesn't love him. But will she find one, and can any man really be trusted? Even her beloved brother.
