Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian,Mark A. Lamport,2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors TheEncyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian educationBiblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education

Theology, Disability, and Spiritual Transformation Michael Hryniuk,2010 In this study Michael Hryniuk develops a full phenomenological psychological and theological account of spiritual transformation in the context of L Arche a federation of Christian communities that welcome persons with learning disabilities The book begins with a critical examination of current perspectives on spiritual transformation in theology and Christian spirituality and constructs a new foundational formulation of transformation as a shift in consciousness identity and behavior Through extensive analysis of the narratives of the caregiver assistants who share life with those who are disabled

this case study reveals an alternative vision of the three fold way that unfolds through a series of profound awakenings in relationships of mutual care and presence an awakening to the capacity to love to bear inner anguish and darkness and to experience radical human and divine acceptance The book examines the psychological dimensions of spiritual transformation through the lens of contemporary affect theory and explores how care gives experience a profound healing of shame in their felt sense of identity and self worth

The Present Truth and the LGBTQ+ Movement Nelson Mercado,2024-10-15 The Present Truth refers to God s end time messages intended to prepare the world to meet Jesus These messages are found in Revelation 14 6 12 and are also known as the Three Angels Messages However as part of his deceptions Satan is seeking to distract and confuse the church by the LGBTQ ideology Today there are many voices in Christianity and in the Seventh day Adventist Church clamoring for the affirmation of the LGBTQ ideology and lifestyle Pastor Mercado believes that following the road of affirmation will lead to a loss of credibility and will dilute the end time messages of preparation Yet acknowledging that LGBTQ people are already in our churches he provides guidelines on how to treat them redemptively while not compromising biblical values
