Violent Earth:

The Violent Earth Frank Walter Lane, 1986 A wave a third of a mile high men and animals levitated a lightning ball that shattered a church these and many other true incidents are recounted in this book which presents Nature in its most violent moods The phenomena covered range from wind and hail storms lightning and floods to the devastation wrought by earthquakes and volcanoes There is also a chapter on meteoroids those visitants from outer space that sometimes plunge through the atmosphere smashing into the earth with the force of a thousand atom bombs

Recovering Communion in a Violent World Christopher Grundy, 2019-11-15 The act of breaking and eating a body in Holy Communion forms us over time What if that s not such a good thing Recovering Communion in a Violent World provides an unblinking examination of the ritualized reenactment of the violence done to Jesus in Holy Communion using insights from the fields of ritual studies and trauma theory Then drawing upon recent research in Christian origins the book raises possibilities for sacramental meal practices that don t ignore the death of Jesus but respond to it differently Rather than colluding with systems of violence these alternative practices respond to violence in our world by continuing to collaborate with the persistence and resilience of God as well as with the realm of God still coming near The result is a groundbreaking exploration that is both unflinching in its critique and passionate in its argument for the place of renewed Christian meal practices In an era when world religions have come under greater scrutiny as sources of violence this book asks readers to look squarely at the reenactment of violence that has come to narrowly define Holy Communion for so long and to imagine that more radical resistant sacramental meal practices are possible

Our Violent World and the Ethics of Jesus John Dudley Willis, 2019-11-29 This book is driven by forty years of study on 1700 years of Christian violence The historical section Part 1 opens with Christianity is the most homicidal religion in the history of the world Half a Billion men women children infants elderly sick and disabled slain You read how Christians were and are taught to obey their governments more than Jesus Christ whether killing as soldiers torturing for governments or harming innocent citizens as police You read the words of Christian European Kings Queens and Popes to their Christian explorers sent into
