a variety of tactile realms including the feel of the medieval city the tactile appeal of relics the social histories of pain pleasure and affection the bonds of touch between humans and animals the strenuous excitement of sports such as wrestling and jousting and the sensuous attractions of consumer culture She delves into a range of vital issues from the uses and prohibitions of touch in social interaction to the disciplining of the body by the modern state from the changing feel of the urban landscape to the technologization of touch in modernity Through poignant descriptions of the healing power of a medieval king's hand or the grueling conditions of a nineteenth century prison we find that history far from being a dry and lifeless subject touches us to the quick
