Spirit and Trauma Shelly Rambo, 2010-09-02 Rambo draws on contemporary studies in trauma to rethink a central claim of the Christian faith that new life arises from death Reexamining the narrative of the death and resurrection of Jesus from the middle day liturgically named as Holy Saturday she seeks a theology that addresses the experience of living in the aftermath of trauma Through a reinterpretation of remaining in the Johannine Gospel she proposes a new theology of the Spirit that challenges traditional conceptions of redemption Offered in its place is a vision of the Spirit s witness from within the depths of human suffering to the persistence of divine love Toward a Pastoral Theology of Holy Saturday Adam D. Tietje,2018-11-01 Veterans who experience the overwhelming trauma of war are often still stuck in the far country In the aftermath many feel abandoned by God Adam D Tietje suggests that Holy Saturday Christ s descent into hell is the place where God fully identifies with our God abandonment In light of the resurrection it can be seen that the complete hiddenness of God on Holy Saturday is in fact the fullness of revelation God has chosen to be revealed precisely through the cross and the grave The author takes a Chalcedonian approach to the problem of relating a theology of Holy Saturday to the psychology of trauma Through the use of this method he suggests that pastoral caregivers might understand trauma and moral injury as soul wounds Sanctuary lament and confession and forgiveness and reconciliation are found to provide a direction for the care of such wounds
