Lech,2000 Why he asks were only fourteen American soldiers tried as collaborators when thousands of others who admitted to some of the same offenses were not The Law Reports of the Special Court for Sierra Leone Charles Chernor Jalloh,Simon Meisenberg,2016-03-11 The Special Court for Sierra Leone was established through signature of a bilateral treaty between the United Nations and the Government of Sierra Leone in early 2002 making it the third modern ad hoc international criminal tribunal The tribunal has tried various persons including former Liberian President Charles Ghankay Taylor for allegedly bearing greatest responsibility for serious violations of international humanitarian law committed during the latter half of the Sierra Leonean armed conflict It completed its work in December 2013 A new Residual Special Court for Sierra Leone based in Freetown and with offices in The Hague has been created to carry out its essential residual functions This volume which consists of three books and a CD ROM and is edited by two legal experts on the Sierra Leone court presents for the first time in a single place a comprehensive collection of all the interlocutory decisions and final trial and appeals judgments issued by the court in the case Prosecutor v Charles Ghankay Taylor The Taylor case is the jewel in the crown of the SCSL as it was the first ever trial and conviction of a former African head of state for crimes committed in a neighboring state It is also one of a handful of such significant cases in international criminal law The Taylor Law Report contains the full text of all substantive judicial decisions including the majority separate and concurring as well as dissenting opinions and probably the longest trial judgment ever issued by an international criminal court It additionally provides relevant information for a better understanding of the case such as the indictments a list of admitted exhibits and a list of documents on the case file This book set which is the third in a series of edited law reports that follows volume 1 on Prosecutor v Brima Kamara and Kanu the so called AFRC case published in November 2012 and volume 2 Prosecutor v Norman Fofana and Kondewa the CDF case published in March 2014 seeks to capture the entire jurisprudential legacy of the tribunal fills the gap for a single and authoritative reference source of the tribunal s jurisprudence These law reports the last volumes of which will be published in 2015 and 2016 are intended for national and international judges lawyers academics students and other researchers as well as transitional justice practitioners in courts tribunals and truth commissions as well as anyone seeking an accurate record of the trials conducted by the Special Court for Sierra Leone N B The hardback copy of this title contains a CD ROM with the scanned decisions that are reproduced in the book and the trial transcripts The e book version does not Buy the complete set of 4 volumes 10 books in total with a discount see isbn 978 90 04 22161 1 The complete set consists of Volume 1 isbn 9789004189119 2 books Volume 2 isbn 9789004221635 2 books Volume 3 isbn 9789004221673 3 books Volume 4 isbn 9789004221659 3 books Rules of the Supreme Court and District Courts of Appeal California, Supreme Court, 1899 The Catalogue of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, 1894 The Pacific Reporter, 1899 Traumatised Witnesses in International Criminal Trials Suzanne Schot, 2024-02-13 This book focuses on the testimonial evidence of traumatised witnesses in trials of international crimes which deal with acts of genocide war crimes and crimes against humanity Such trials often involve the testimonies of those who experienced or witnessed extremely traumatic events which can make it hard for these witnesses to recall specific details Testifying during trial may in itself also pose challenges to their well being Yet the legal process of determining whether someone can be held criminally responsible for the alleged crimes needs to be fair in accordance with the right to a fair trial of the accused and the facts need to be determined as accurately as possible This book argues that to ensure fair and accurate fact finding when in particular traumatised witnesses testify a balance needs to be struck between the needs of witnesses who testify about traumatic experiences the fair trial rights of the accused and the objective of the court to establish as accurately as possible the responsibility of the accused This is crucial throughout the stages of selecting preparing presenting and assessing the testimonial evidence of traumatised witnesses The methodology involves an analysis of transcripts of proceedings and case law of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia the International Criminal Court and Dutch courts prosecuting international crimes The research demonstrates that it is often difficult to strike a balance between the competing objectives during proceedings when traumatised witnesses testify due to the current lack of regulations and guidelines applicable during investigations and prosecutions This book shows that this balance can and should be achieved when traumatised witnesses testify during criminal proceedings for international crimes The work is an invaluable resource for researchers academics and practitioners in criminal law criminology legal psychology legal psychiatry social anthropology and forensic sciences
