Goodreads Choice Winner Case Studies:

Better Stories: Mapping Cultural Studies with Lawrence Grossberg Andrew Davis, John Nguyet Erni, Carolyn Hardin, Gilbert B. Rodman, Jennifer Daryl Slack, 2025-09-10 Better Stories assembles essays and provocations in honor of Lawrence Grossberg's radically contextual and affectively attuned lifework. In over fifty chapters contributors trace mattering maps of influence, friendship, and intellectual struggle, charged with the hope that thinking together with feeling can change the world. These essays not only comment on Grossberg's ideas and many published works but also engage, expand, confront, and reshape them. Here cultural studies is not a settled field but an unruly and ongoing conversation, an affective and political project sustained through convivial agonism, where asking so what sparks new thinking and even better stories. With contributions from Charles R. Acland, Preston Adcock, Juan Ricardo Aparicio, Bryan G. Behrenhausen, Tony Bennett, Marcus Breen, Lisa B. Y. Calvente, Iain Chambers, Younghan Cho, John Clarke, Barbara Claypole White, Zachariah Claypole White, Chantal Cornut Gentile, D. Arcy, Christopher James Dahlie, Andrew Davis, John Nguyet Erni, Anthony Fung, Jeremy Gilbert, Ronald Greene, Claudia Gualtieri, Carolyn Hardin, Mark Hayward, Lisa Henderson, Roman Horak, Rolien Hoyng, Steve Jones, May Joseph, Mikko Lehtonen, Jo Littler, Christina Lutter, Wolfgang Maderthaner, Lidia De Michelis, Meaghan Morris, Lutz Musner, Jeremy Packer, Roberto Pedretti, Elspeth Probyn, Aljo A. The Year's Best Sports Writing 2021 Glenn Stout, 2021-10-05 Glenn Stout, founding editor of the Best American Sports Writing, has curated an essential anthology showcasing incredible feats and diverse perspectives across the world of sports. Selected from a wide range of newspapers, magazines, and digital publications during the previous year, these stories capture enduring moments while celebrating the craft of writing at its most sublime. This extraordinary collection reveals the fascinating stories behind the sports we love, the competitors who push their boundaries, and the cultures they are ultimately embedded in.

Crash Course in Readers' Advisory Cynthia Orr, 2014-12-05 One of the key services librarians provide is helping readers find books they'll enjoy. This crash course will furnish you with the basic practical information you need to excel at readers' advisory (RA) for adults and teens. The question, can you recommend a good book, can be one of the most daunting you face, notwithstanding the fact that recommender tools are ubiquitous. Often uncertainty arises because although librarians are called on to perform such services daily, readers' advisory is a skill set in which most have no formal training. This guide will remedy that. It is built around understanding books, reading, and readers, and will quickly show you how to identify reading preferences and advise patrons effectively. You'll learn about multiple RA approaches, such as genre appeal, features, and reading interests, and about essential tools that can help with RA. Plus, you'll discover tips to help you keep up with this ever-changing field. There is no other professional book that covers the full spectrum of skills needed to perform the RA service that is in such great demand in libraries of all kinds Helping readers find what they want is a sure way to serve patrons and build your library's brand You will come away from this easy to understand crash course with the solid background you need to do both Conducting the Reference Interview, Third Edition Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Kirsti Nilsen, Marie L. Radford, 2019-07-03 Based on the latest research in communication theory but tailored specifically for real world application this updated manual speaks equally to the needs of students preparing to enter the profession and those who are already fielding reference inquiries The authors working in consultation with a stellar advisory board of scholars and practitioners present a convenient and comprehensive resource that will teach you how to understand the needs of public academic and special library users across any virtual setting including email text messaging and social media as well as in traditional and face to face models of communication Packed with exercises and examples to help you practice effective reference transactions and avoid common pitfalls this book tackles the fundamentals of the reference interview from why it's important in the first place to methods for setting the stage for a successful interview and techniques for finding out what the library user really wants to know covers the ins and outs of the readers advisory interview examines a wide range of contexts such as children young adults parents seniors adults from diverse communities and those with disabilities presents case studies of innovative reference and user encounters at a variety of libraries offers updated coverage of virtual reference including new research virtual reality transcripts and a look at crowd sourcing reference via social media features new content on common microaggressions with guidance on how to use awareness of emotion as a factor in reference interactions to ensure better outcomes discusses topics such as respecting protecting privacy overcoming assumptions implicit judgment the importance of context determining the real information need and many other lessons learned from challenging reference encounters and thoroughly addresses policy and training procedures as well as the unique challenges faced by paraprofessionals and non degree staff Find your bearings in the continually evolving hybrid reference environment through proven strategies advice exercises and research from three experts in the field

Conflict and Colonialism in 21st Century Romantic Historical Fiction Hsu-Ming Teo, Paloma Fresno-Calleja, 2024-06-13 This book explores how postmillennial Anglophone women writers use romantic narrativisations of history to explore revise repurpose and challenge the past in their novels exposing the extent to which past societies were damaging to women by instead imagining alternative histories The novelists discussed employ the generic conventions of romance to narrate their understanding of historical and contemporary injustice and to reflect upon women's achievements and the price they paid for autonomy and a life of public purpose The volume seeks firstly to discuss the work of revision or reparation being performed by romantic historical fiction and secondly to analyse how the past is being repurposed for use in the present It contends that the discourses and genre of romance work to provide a reparative reading of the past but there are limitations and entrenched problems in such readings Edinburgh History of Reading Rose Jonathan Rose, 2020-07-09

Digital History and Hermeneutics Andreas Fickers, Juliane Tatarinov, 2022-06-21
As a result of rapid advancements in computer science during recent decades there has been an increased use of digital tools methodologies and sources in the field of digital humanities
While opening up new opportunities for scholarship many digital methods and tools now used for humanities research have nevertheless been developed by computer or data sciences and thus require a critical understanding of their mode of operation and functionality
The novel field of digital hermeneutics is meant to provide such a critical and reflexive frame for digital humanities research by acquiring digital literacy and skills
A new knowledge for the assessment of digital data research infrastructures analytical tools and interpretative methods is needed providing the humanities scholar with the necessary munition for doing critical research
The Doctoral Training Unit Digital History and Hermeneutics at the University of Luxembourg applies this analytical frame to 13 PhD projects
By combining a hermeneutic reflection on the new digital practices of humanities scholarship with hands on experimentation with digital tools and methods new approaches and opportunities as well as limitations and flaws can be addressed

The Russian Federation in Global Knowledge Warfare Holger Mölder, Vladimir Sazonov, Archil Chochia, Tanel Kerikmäe, 2021-07-24
This book examines Russian influence operations globally in Europe and in Russia's neighboring countries and provides a comprehensive overview of the latest technologies and forms of strategic communication employed in hybrid warfare
Given the growing importance of comprehensive information warfare as a new and rapidly advancing type of international conflict in which knowledge is a primary target the book examines Russia's role in Global Knowledge Warfare
The content is divided into three parts the first of which addresses conceptual issues such as the logic of information warfare the role of synthetic media and Russia's foreign policy concepts including the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on influence operations
The second part analyzes technological legal and strategic challenges in modern hybrid warfare while the third focuses on textual cultural and historical patterns in information warfare also from various regional e.g. the Western Balkans Romania Ukraine and the Baltic perspectives
The book is primarily intended for scholars in the fields of international relations security and the military sciences who are interested in Russian foreign policy and influence operations but also their impact on the global security environment

Reading Still Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie, Paulette M. Rothbauer, 2018-03-01
Drawing on scholarly research findings this book

presents a cogent case that librarians can use to work towards prioritization of reading in libraries and in schools Reading is more important than it has ever been recent research on reading such as PEW reports and Scholastic s Kids and Family Reading Report proves that fact This new edition of Reading Matters provides powerful evidence that can be used to justify the establishment maintenance and growth of pleasure reading collections both fiction and nonfiction and of readers advisory services The authors assert that reading should be woven into the majority of library activities reference collection building provision of leisure materials readers advisory services storytelling and story time programs adult literacy programs and more This edition also addresses emergent areas of interest such as e reading e writing and e publishing multiple literacies visual texts the ascendancy of young adult fiction and fan fiction A new chapter addresses special communities of YA readers The book will help library administrators and personnel convey the importance of reading to grant funding agencies stakeholders and the public at large LIS faculty who wish to establish and maintain courses in readers advisory will find it of particular interest
