A Taste of Progress: Food at International and World Exhibitions in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Professor Peter Scholliers, Dr Nelleke Teughels, 2015-11-28 World exhibitions have been widely acknowledged as important sources for understanding the development of the modern consumer and urbanized society yet whilst the function and purpose of architecture at these major events has been well studied the place of food has received very little attention Food stood as a powerful semiotic device for communicating and maintaining conceptions of identity history traditions and progress of inclusion and exclusion making it a valuable tool for researching the construction of national or corporate sentiments Combining recent developments in food studies and the history of major international exhibitions this volume provides a refreshing alternative view of these international and intercultural spectacles

Tastes of the Divine Michelle Voss, 2014-06-16 The intensity and meaningfulness of aesthetic experience have often been described in theological terms By designating basic human emotions as rasa a word that connotes taste flavor or essence Indian aesthetic theory conceptualizes emotional states as something to be savored At their core emotions can be tastes of the divine In this book the methods of the emerging discipline of comparative theology enable the author s appreciation of Hindu texts and practices to illuminate her Christian reflections on aesthetics and emotion Three emotions vie for prominence in the religious sphere peace love and fury Whereas Indian theorists following Abhinavagupta claim that the aesthetic emotion of peace best approximates the goal of religious experience devotees of Krishna and medieval Christian readings of the Song of Songs argue that love communicates most powerfully with divinity In response to the transcendence emphasized in both approaches the book turns to fury at injustice to attend to emotion s foundations in the material realm The implications of this constructive theology of emotion for Christian liturgy pastoral care and social engagement are manifold Flavours of the world - The 70 best recipes from Club Med chefs Club Med,2024-11-14 With your feet in the sand or under the table settle down for a moment of indulgence and sharing Embark on an unforgettable journey through 70 recipes carefully prepared by the chefs at the Club Med Resorts around the world Savour lemon chicken with olives from Morocco discover octopus curry from the Seychelles or treat yourself to the delicate matcha buns from Japan or the delicious Sicilian pistachio cannoli Allow yourself to be carried away by these exceptional taste experiences rich in the most vibrant cultures and culinary traditions on the globe Each recipe will embark you on a trip to distant horizons awakening your senses to real and unforgettable flavours A Taste of Home Edgar B.
