Stories to Tell to Children, 1960 Stories to Tell to Children Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1918 Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation Katharina M. Wilson, 1987 The dawn of humanism in the Renaissance presented privileged women with great opportunities for personal and intellectual growth Sexual and social roles still determined the extent to which a woman could pursue education and intellectual accomplishment but it was possible through the composition of poetry or prose to temporarily offset hierarchies of gender to become equal to men in the act of creation Edited by Katharina M Wilson this anthology introduces the works of twenty five women writers of the Renaissance and Reformation among them Marie Dentre a Swiss evangelical reformer whose writings were so successful they were banned during her lifetime Gaspara Stampa a cultivated courtesan of Venetian aristocratic circles who wrote lyric poetry that has earned her comparisons to Michelangelo and Tasso H Lisienne de Crenne a French aristocrat who embodied the true spirit of the Renaissance feminist writing both as novelist and as champion of her sex Helene Kottanner Austrian chambermaid to Queen Elizabeth of Hungary whose memoirs recall her daring theft of the Holy Crown of Saint Stephen for her esteemed mistress and Lady Mary Sidney Wroth the first Englishwoman known to write a full length work of fiction and compose a significant body of secular poetry Offering a seldom seen counterpoint to literature written by men Women Writers of the Renaissance and Reformation presents prose and poetry that have never before appeared in English as well as writings that have rarely been available to the nonspecialist The women whose writings are included here are united by a keen awareness of the social limitations placed upon their creative potential of the strained relationship between their gender and their work This concern invests their writings with a distinctive voice one that carries the echoes of a male aesthetic while boldly declaring battle against it

Laughing Fit to Kill Glenda Carpio, 2008-07 Reassessing the meanings of black humor and dark satire Laughing Fit to Kill illustrates how black comedians writers and artists have deftly deployed various modes of comedic conjuring the absurd the grotesque and the strategic expression of racial stereotypes to redress not only the past injustices of slavery and racism in America but also their legacy in the present Focusing on representations of slavery in the post civil rights era

Carpio explores stereotypes in Richard Pryor's groundbreaking stand up act and the outrageous comedy of Chappelle's Show to demonstrate how deeply indebted they are to the sly social criticism embedded in the profoundly ironic nineteenth century fiction of William Wells Brown and Charles W Chesnutt. Similarly she reveals how the iconoclastic literary works of Ishmael Reed and Suzan Lori Parks use satire, hyperbole and burlesque humor to represent a violent history and to take on issues of racial injustice. With an abundance of illustrations, Carpio also extends her discussion of radical black comedy to the visual arts as she reveals how the use of subversive appropriation by Kara Walker and Robert Colescott cleverly lampoons the iconography of slavery. Ultimately Laughing Fit to Kill offers a unique look at the bold, complex and just plain funny ways that African American artists have used laughter to critique slavery's dark legacy. Karl-Josef Kuschel, 1994. Theology is not a subject especially noted for its jokes though one of the chapters in this book has a good collection of them. However since laughter is such an important element in life there would be something wrong if it could not be heard in theology not mocking laughter but the laughter which indicates delight and joy. And that such laughter cannot be heard today in the Roman Catholic church in its wintry season is an important indication of its problems. Dr Kuschel traces a fascinating story of laughter from Sarah in the Hebrew Bible through Homer, Plato and Aristotle, Mozart and Kafka to Umberto Eco and The Name of the Rose. There is a long chapter on Christian laughter and its foundations in the New Testament and there is a discussion of the Christian condemnation of laughter among the church fathers and the monastic tradition. And sometimes laughter is out of place, a lesson which our modern world has not really learned. Jesus from whom Christianity arose was laughed at and his followers have known what it is to be laughed at too. That recognition too is vital, one more strand in what proves to be the rich vein of new theological insights offered here. How much underlies laughter. This is the kind of theology that we need, the world in all its heights and depths, everything clearly thought through, brilliantly written and at the same time centred on the Christian message. Hans Kung, Karl Josef Kuschel teaches ecumenical theology and theological aesthetics in the University of Tübingen.
