Dystopia in Arabic Speculative Fiction Wessam Elmeligi, 2023-08-29 Dystopia in Arabic Speculative Fiction A Poetics of Distress unpacks the nuanced Arabic contribution to speculative fiction Part of a larger project by Elmeligi to formulate a poetics of literary theory to read Arabic literature this book examines Arabic dystopian fiction from the lens of social causes of psychological distress The selected novels combine works by authors already established in studies by Western scholars and many that have not been translated before or have not received enough scholarly attention yet The novels represent an array of Arab countries including Algerian Egyptian Jordanian Kuwaiti Mauritanian Syrian and Tunisian authors It also highlights the contribution of women authors to Arabic speculative fiction This book enriches the conversation about what is quite possibly a significant speculative fiction turn in the Arabic novel as well as provides a new theoretical approach to read such complex and innovative literature Reimagining Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2025-10-31 In the first decades of the twenty first century science fiction literature has been transformed in many ways as the genre has reacted to the dominating influence of films television and video games the growing popularity of fantasy the rise of young adult science fiction and graphic novels the impact of the internet and social media and the increasing diversity of the authors characters and often non Western settings The essays making up this volume address these and other changes in two ways Some consider new critical approaches to science fiction in response to changing circumstances including analyses of how evolutionary psychology explains today s science fiction the emerging subgenre of cli fi exploring the effects of climate change the use of science fiction in different areas of the college curriculum and a statistical method for identifying works of science fiction Others examine significant new authors such as Nalo Hopkinson Charles Stross Paolo Bacigalupi Suzanne Collins Mira Grant John Sandford and David Mura Contributors include science fiction author Howard V Hendrix and experts in the fields of Chinese studies gender studies literature philosophy and religion Envisioning futures for environmental and sustainability education Peter Blaze Corcoran, Joseph P. Weakland, Arjen E.J. Wals, 2023-08-07 This edited collection invites educational practitioners and theorists to speculate on and craft visions for the future of environmental and sustainability education It explores what educational methods and practices might exist on the horizon waiting for discovery and implementation A global array of authors imagines alternative futures for the field and attempts to rethink environmental and sustainability education institutionally intellectually and pedagogically These thought leaders chart how emerging modes of critical speculation might function as a means to remap and redesign the future of environmental and sustainability education today Previous volumes within this United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development series have responded to the complexity of environmental education in our contemporary moment with concepts such as social learning intergenerational learning and transformative leadership for sustainable futures Envisioning Futures for Environmental and Sustainability Education builds on this earlier work as well as the work of others It seeks to foster modes of intellectual engagement with ecological futures in the Anthropocene to develop resilient adaptable pedagogies as a hedge against future ecological uncertainties and to spark discussion concerning how futures thinking can generate theoretical and applied innovations within the field

Crisis Cinema in the Middle East Shohini Chaudhuri, 2022-06-16 In recent years the Arab world and Iran have been afflicted by cataclysmic events among them brutal state crackdowns of revolutions Yet filmmakers have persisted in their desire to tell their stories against the odds in creative acts that attest to their imagination courage and resilience In this book Shohini Chaudhuri examines a broad range of films made during the tumultuous period since 2009 ranging from internationally award winning festival favourites such as For Sama 2019 Capernaum 2018 and Taxi Tehran 2015 to lesser known films from the region While freedom of expression is often understood through the lens of state censorship she reveals the different types of obstacles that filmmakers face and their strategies for overcoming them so that those constraints are transformed into creative opportunities Using her original interviews with filmmakers such as Waad al Kateab Yasmin Fedda Larissa Sansour Mani Haghighi and Ossama Mohammed she identifies nine creative strategies for producing work under conditions of crisis Chaudhuri argues that creativity is indelibly shaped by constraints whether these are externally imposed by existing materials funding and socio political conditions or self imposed constraints through choices of genre or acceptance of rules and responsibilities She shows that the range of creative strategies emanating from the region is much wider than allegory and becoming ever more direct She thus opens up new lines of inquiry into cinematic creativity in sites of conflict and crisis in the Middle East and beyond

Dystopian Literature M. Keith Booker, 1994-05-25 Dystopian literature is a potent vehicle for criticizing existing social conditions and political systems While utopian literature portrays ideal worlds dystopian literature depicts the flaws and failures of imaginative societies Often these societies are related to utopias and the dystopian writers have chosen to reveal shortcomings of those social systems previously considered ideal This reference overviews dystopian theory and summarizes and analyzes numerous dystopian works By reviewing the critical thought of particular dystopian theorists the beginning of the volume provides a theoretical context for the remainder of the book Because dystopian literature is so closely related to utopian writing the reference profiles and discusses eight important utopian works The rest of the book includes entries for numerous dystopian novels plays and films Each entry summarizes the work and discusses dystopian themes The entries include short bibliographies with full bibliographic information provided at the end of the volume This comprehensive guide covers the full period from Thomas More's Utopia to the present day

Clockwork Worlds Richard D. Erlich, Thomas P. Dunn, 1983-12-28 Taken to extremes social organization however necessary in itself leads to the creation of what editors Erlich and Dunn label Clockwork Worlds This anthology has been organized to define and expand that concept for the reader Arthur O Lewis provides a comprehensive overview of clockwork worlds and sets them in their political and literary contexts Following Lewis introduction are two series of essays which show how the theme of mechanized environments has been developed in classic works of dystopian fiction and how it has been treated by some of the major contemporary science fiction writers The Special Topics section studies mechanized environments from a variety of viewpoints The editors have included an extensive list of stories novels films background readings and other works useful for the study of mechanized environments
