Framework Fairy Tale Retelling:

Re-Orienting the Fairy Tale Mayako Murai, Luciana Cardi, 2020-08-25 New approaches to decenter Eurocentric perspectives in fairy tales and lift up storytelling cultures across the globe Re-Orienting the Fairy Tale: Contemporary Adaptations across Cultures seeks to re-orient the fairy tale across different cultures, media, and disciplines and proposes new approaches to the ever-expanding fairy tale web in a global context with a special emphasis on non-Euro-American materials. Editors Mayako Murai and Luciana Cardi bring together emerging and established researchers in various disciplines from around the world to decenter existing cultural and methodological assumptions underlying fairy tale studies and suggest new avenues into the increasingly complex world of fairy tale cultures today. Divided into three parts, the fourteen essays cover a range of materials from Hawaiian wonder tales to Japanese heroine tales to Spanish fairy tale film adaptation. Chapters include an invitation from Cristina Bacchilega to explore the possibilities related to the uncanny processes of both disorientation and re-orientation taking place in the journeys of wonder tales across multiple media and cultures. Aleksandra Szugajew's chapter outlines the strategies adopted by recent Hollywood live-action fairy tale films to attract adult audiences and reveals how this new genre offers a form of global entertainment and a forum that invites reflection on various social and cultural issues in today's globalizing world. Katsuhiko Suganuma draws on queer theory and popular musicology to analyze the fairy tale intertexts in the works of the Japanese all-female band Princess Princess and demonstrate that popular music can be a medium through which the queer potential of ostensibly heteronormative traditional fairy tales may emerge. Daniela Kato's chapter explores the ecological dimensions of Carter's literary fairy tale and offers an ecofeminist interpretation of a fairy tale forest as a borderland that lies beyond the nature/culture dichotomy. Readers will find inspiration and new directions in the cross-cultural and interdisciplinary approaches to fairy tales provided by Re-Orienting the Fairy Tale.

Sections cover Concepts and theories, Historical contexts and national identity, Cultural forms and children's texts, Traditional story and adaptation, Picture books across the majority world, Trends in children's and young adult literatures, Exposition of the literary cultural and historical contexts in which children's literature is produced together with an exploration of intersections between these literatures and more extensively researched areas. This will enhance access and understanding for a large range of international readers. The essays offer an ideal introduction for those newly approaching literature for children in specific areas looking for new insights and interdisciplinary perspectives or interested in directions for future scholarship.

Fairy Tale Films Pauline Greenhill, Sidney Eve Matrix, 2010-08-06. To set the field, fairy tales are traditional or literary fictional narratives that combine human and non-human protagonists with elements of wonder and the supernatural. Scholars of literature and film explore how such narratives manifest in film, either native to it or changelings from written literature or oral tradition. Among the topics are the commodification of childhood in contemporary fairy tale film, Guillermo del Toro's Pan's Labyrinth, El Laberinto del Fauno, and neomagical realism, feminism and place in The Juniper Tree, patriarchal backlash and nostalgia in Disney's Enchanted, feminist cultural pedagogy in Angela Carter and Neil Jordan's The Company of Wolves, and a secret midnight ball and a magic cloak in Stanley Kubrick's Eyes Wide Shut.
