Rumors of the Turning Wheel Anne Halley, 2003 The title of this powerful collection refers to the wheel of fortune In a time long before television game shows a wood and wire crank driven mechanism would be set up and turned by hand at fairs and carnivals next to the puppet show booth the pot and pan vendors and the horse drawn carousel Country folk and children watched to see where the turning wheel would stop and if their folded paper chance might reveal the lucky number that won a prize The wheel turns more noisily portentously and can take on disguised or secret forms when Fortuna concerns herself with the fate of rulers and nations Rumors of all kinds will be heard as the wheel's turnings stir the air Rumors of war of course strange births rape the collapse of powerful houses and incestuous loves always the rumor of impending death sometimes a rumor of survivals and often one of hope for the children These rumors were gathered on the sidelines and in the market squares during the last the catastrophic twentieth century and they form the starting point for this memorable collection

Wheel Michael O'Neill, 2008 Presenting revolving perspectives with wheels and circles everywhere a tramp muses on the wheel of fortune a boy's arm brushes his ear as he bowls a merry go round melts into a hoop of light the rings of a tree reveal its age this collection of poems turn on an axis of opposites self and others here and there present and past

The Difficult Wheel Betty Adcock, 1995 In The Difficult Wheel Betty Adcock writes about time about losing the past yet never being able to lose it Hers are poems about vanishings about grief and about folly our absurd attempt to cancel time and space to abstract ourselves out of history and out of nature and to distract ourselves from death's specter Adcock's verses fuse formal pattern with the chaos of rapid change music with grief the world

s presences deer bird fox all that shakes the shuddering loom with the absences that time has dreamed and language must confront Out of her personal losses Adcock imagines the larger ones we are facing at the end of the twentieth century But there are celebrations here too a simple field of wild flowers on an Aegean island becomes music memory a pearl of great price
