The Poetics of Imitation Patricia A. Rosenmeyer, 1992 Western literature knows the anacreontic poems best in the translations or adaptations of such poets as Ronsard Herrick and Goethe This collection of poems once assumed to be the work of Anacreon himself was considered unworthy of serious attention after the poems were proved to be late Hellenistic and early Roman imitations by anonymous writers This full length treatment of the anacreontic corpus first published in 1992 explores the complex poetics of imitation which inspired anacreontic composition for so many centuries in antiquity The author reassesses Anacreon s own oeuvre and then discusses the system of selective imitation practised by the anacreontic poets The book explores what light the corpus can shed on ancient literary genres intertextual influences and the literary manifestations of symposiastic and erotic ideals in a post classical society which looks back to an archaic model as its guiding force A full translation of the anacreontic collection is included as an appendix and all Greek and Latin is translated
