Swan Volume 4 Swan:

Swan Kyōko Ariyoshi, 2005 Masumi trying to make it in the competitive world of ballet gets a chance to audition for a lead role with the Bolshoi but first she must defeat new rival Sidney Eglund in a dance off in front of famous ballerina Margaret Fonteyn The Trumpeter Swan George Bradford Saunders, John L. Paradiso, Victor B. Scheffer, Winston E. Banko, 1968

Introducing the Medieval Swan Natalie Jayne Goodison, 2022-07-15 Birds have always been a popular and accessible subject but most books about medieval birds are an overview of their symbolism generally owl for ill omen the pelican as a Eucharistic image and the like The unique selling point of this book is to focus on one bird and explore it in detail from medieval reality to artistic concept This book also traces how and why the medieval perception of the swan shifted from hypocritical to courtly within the medieval period With special attention to The Knight of the Swan the book traces the rise and popularity of the medieval swan through literature history courtly practices and art The book uses thoroughly readable language to appeal to a wide audience and explains some of the reasons why the swan holds such resonance today by covering views of the swan from classic to early modern times Swans: Their Biology and Natural History Paul

Johnsgard, 2016-02-25 The seven species of swans are an easily and universally recognized group of waterfowl which have historically played important roles in the folklore myths and legends in many cultures Among the largest of all flying birds they have been used as symbols of royalty grace and beauty and largely for these reasons swans have only rarely been considered acceptable as targets for sport hunting Swans occur on all continents but Africa though most species are found in the temperate and arctic zones of North America and Eurasia Swans are a long lived species and are among the most strongly monogamous of birds having prolonged pair and family bonds that influence their flocking and social behavior and contribute to the overall high degree of human interest in them This volume describes their distributions ecology social behavior and breeding biology Included are nine distribution maps 19 drawings 23 photographs by the author and a bibliography of nearly 700 references The Trumpeter Swan Winston E. Banko, 1960 Ecology of Wisdom Arne

Næss, 2016-07-07 The smaller we come to feel ourselves compared with the mountain the nearer we come to participating in its greatness Philosopher mountaineer activist and visionary Arne Naess's belief that all living things have value made him one of the most inspirational figures in the environmental movement Drawing on his years spent in an isolated hut high in the Norwegian mountains and on influences as diverse as Gandhi's nonviolent action and Spinoza's all encompassing worldview this selection of the best of his writings is filled with wit charisma and intense connection with nature Emphasizing joy cooperation and beautiful actions they create a philosophy of life from a man who never lost his sense of wonder at the world Arne Naess's ideas inspired environmentalists and Green political activists around the world The New York Times

American Aberdeen-Angus Herd Book American Angus Association, 1900 Feminism Enchanted Yanbing Er, 2025-09-16 The feminist movement has long been guided by the promise of progress for women politically economically and in personal life But we live in a time when history appears to be moving backward into a more reactionary past How might feminist thought make sense of this plight without returning to the liberal Western framework of progressive reason Yanbing Er argues that the key to this predicament lies in the capacity of the literary imagination to invigorate feminist critical practice She reveals how a literary mode of enchantment fundamentally transforms feminist theory and praxis imagining new and surprising possibilities that had once been foreclosed by dominant paradigms of progress Enchantment illuminates forms of existence that have been lost erased or obscured allowing us to encounter both feminism and the world anew Er finds incantatory power in the works of writers such as Rivers Solomon Akwaeke Emezi Ruth Ozeki and Alexis Wright who disrupt hegemonic ways of thinking by summoning otherwise unimaginable ways of being Their works collectively present an immersive and expansive feminist imaginary that makes space for marginalized histories narratives and lifeworlds Elegantly written and boldly argued Feminism Enchanted shows how poetic language conjures alternative futures for feminist thought
