Survivors London:

Forgotten Heroes Roy Dutton, 2007 First hand accounts of the men who took part in the heroic and tragic Charge of the Light Brigade at the Battle of Balaclava on the 25th October 1854 Previously unpublished biographies of the men and photographs bring their stories to life What became of our heroes Some died penniless while others found fame and fortune Set within an unrelenting and cruel military campaign where many would perish unravelling the myths to find many of the missing Chargers was a massive undertaking Trauma, the Body and Transformation Kim Etherington, 2003 Annotation This is a valuable resource for those who are dealing with the impact of childhood trauma in their own lives their families and friends whose lives are also touched workers in the field of trauma especially medical practitioners who can sometimes feel helpless when faced with patients whose symptoms they cannot understand or heal and counsellors psychotherapists and psychologists This book is also of value to researchers interested in narrative research methods BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Living With and Beyond Cancer Across the Lifespan İsmail Toygar, Paz Fernández-Ortega, Annie Young , Gülcan Bagcivan, 2025-12-22 Living with and beyond cancer has become a more common feature in recent decades due to technological advances in cancer treatment However cancer survivors of different ages and from different cultures have distinctive needs The risk of cancer related complications should be assessed and managed Prehabilitation and rehabilitation are thus important care components for cancer survivors pre during and after treatments This Research Topic focuses on people s experiences of living with cancer and living with the side effects of treatments In addition patients of all ages are affected by the fear of recurrence or fear of progression after treatment is completed The impact of living with or beyond cancer on families and caregivers is also immense The challenge is that the health systems are unable to meet the needs of people living with and beyond cancer globally The goal of this Research Topic is to explore the needs and solutions of people living with and beyond cancer of all ages and in various countries highlighting the culturally appropriate support available encompassing symptom management psychological care nutrition and exercise Education and information for patients and caregivers are also emphasized Multidisciplinary teams are a necessity for optimal coordination of care for survivors This Research Topic will assist clinicians in managing these challenges providing examples of the best models of care for cancer survivors Important areas for future research will also be elucidated The scope of the Research Topic is to provide support for those living with and beyond cancer Papers focusing on patient and caregiver support bridging children teenagers young adults and adults will be requested Specific themes of interest include but are not limited to Access to survivorship care Symptom management Patient experiences Patient assessment Family and caregivers needs Equality diversity and inclusion Culturally sensitive care Assessment monitoring follow up and delivery of survivorship care Effectiveness of care coordination models Evidence based clinical guidance Updated contemporary research Returning to work Women Survivors, Psychological Trauma, and the Politics of

Resistance Norma Jean Profitt,2000 Explores the processes through which women survivors of abuse can transform psychological trauma into a politics of resistance and become involved in collective action for social change Criminal Justice Anthea Hucklesby,Azrini Wahidin,2013-07-25 Criminal Justice provides a thorough introduction to the challenges faced by the UK s criminal justice system A team of high profile contributors each present a concise overview of their particular field of expertise detailing key procedures challenging students to engage with current topical debates

Chronicles of Cape Commanders George McCall Theal,1882 Occupational Therapies without Borders - Volume 2 Frank Kronenberg,Nick Pollard,Dikaios Sakellariou,2011-10-24 The companion text to Occupational Therapy without Borders Volume 1 learning from the spirit of survivors In this landmark text writers from around the world discuss a plurality of occupation based approaches that explicitly acknowledge the full potential of the art and science of occupational therapy The profession is presented as a political possibilities based practice concerned with what matters most to people in real life contexts generating practice based evidence to complement evidence based practice As these writers demonstrate occupational therapies are far more than as some critical views have suggested a monoculture of practice rooted in Western modernity Nobel Peace Laureate Desmond Tutu captures the ethos of this book which essentially calls for engagements in the service of a purpose that is larger than the advancement of our profession s interests Your particular approach to advancing our wellbeing and health strikes me as both unique and easily taken for granted Whilst you value and work with medical understandings your main aim seems to go beyond these You seem to enable people to appreciate more consciously how what we do to and with ourselves and others on a daily basis impacts on our individual and collective wellbeing As occupational therapists you have a significant contribution to make allowing people from all walks of life to contribute meaningfully to the wellbeing of others Links philosophy with practical examples of engaging people in ordinary occupations of daily life as a means of enabling them to transform their own lives Includes contributions from worldwide leaders in occupational therapy research and practice Describes concrete initiatives in under served and neglected populations Looks at social and political mechanisms that influence people s access to useful and meaningful occupation Chapters increase diversity of contributions geographically culturally and politically Emphasis on practice education and research maintains academic credibility A glossary and practical examples in nearly every chapter make text more accessible to students

Refugees in an Age of Genocide Katharine Knox,Tony Kushner,2012-10-12 This is a study of the history of global refugee movements over the 20th century ranging from east European Jews fleeing Tsarist oppression at the turn of the century to asylum seekers from the former Zaire and Yugoslavia Recognizing that the problem of refugees is a universal one the authors emphasize the human element which should be at the forefront of both the study of refugees and responses to them Catalogue of the Astor Library Astor Library,1887 Crime Victims Basia Spalek,2017-09-16 From white collar to environmental crime and hate crime to sexual violence the study of victims and of the processes of victimisation is indispensable to understanding the full scale of the effects of crime in society In this book Basia Spalek offers a theoretically detailed and empirically rich account of how victimology has developed into a field that transcends academic disciplines and brings together researchers practitioners activists and community members This second edition of Crime Victims continues to be a comprehensive and up to date overview of the historical social political and cultural issues and trends in approaches to victims and victimisation It introduces victimological theory explores the impacts of crime on victims and the challenges involved in developing victim support services In addition acknowledging the increasing recognition of trauma as central to understanding victimisation it includes a therapeutic toolkit for victims offenders and practitioners working in and with the criminal justice system With Cutting Edge Research and Case Study sections added at the end of each chapter to highlight victimology as a vibrant and continuously developing field Crime Victims is an essential resource to a broad audience ranging from students of victimology criminology and sociology to practitioners and professionals
