Swahili For The Broken Hearted:

Swahili for the Broken-hearted Peter Moore,2003 Question What do you do when you re dumped by the Girl Next Door Answer Throw yourself into another madcap adventure and travel from Cape Town to Cairo A week after breaking up with the GND his travelling companion through Central America Peter Moore heads off to Africa to lose himself for a while In the grand tradition of 19th century scoundrelas explorers and romantics Africa strikes him as the ideal place to find solitude and anonymity in the face of a personal crisis What follows is Peter s journey from one end of the Dark Continent to the other Travelling the fabled Cape Town to Cairo route by any means of transport he can blag or if he must pay his way onto it s an epic trek that sees our intrepid Antipodean experience everything from the southernmost city in Africa to the Pyramids vast game parks and thundering falls cosmopolitan cities and tiny villages as he journeys through the very heart of Africa And travelling on his own it s inevitable that Peter falls in with a motley cast of characters and has a myriad misadventures including coming face to face with a wild Hyena with very bad breath crossing the treacherous Sani Pass the highest in Africa narrowly escaping a riot by hiding in a coffin shop saving oil covered Penguins in South Africa acting as an extra in a WW2 epic not to mention dodging 20 000 single woman trying to catch the eye of the king of Swaziland during the annual Reed Dance And then there was the time when he was kicked out of Robert Mugabe s birthday bash at gunpoint Swahili for the Broken-Hearted Peter Moore,2005-05 Do Not Take this Road to El-Karama Chris Harvie,2011-04-08 Tired of tragic stories Chris Harvie sets out to see the positive side of the Dark Continent and to enjoy its life and laughter Do Not Take This Road to El Karama is the entertaining account of an epic road trip that takes him from his home outside the Kruger National Park to the banks of the Nile in Uganda and back again In his haphazard and somewhat eccentric travels Harvie encounters missionaries and mechanics locals and ex pats rascals and rogues Delving into his own mixed British and South African identity he tries to fathom in his trademark witty and sardonic style the post independence national character of the southern central and east African countries through which he and his companions pass Delightfully opinionated brimming with interesting facts questionable comment and dubious speculations this book is essential reading for anyone with more than a passing interest in Africa travel history and people in a good read or simply in being alive The Wrong Way Home Peter Moore,2026-02-20 It was a severe case of hippie envy that impelled Peter Moore to travel home from London to Sydney without ever stepping on to an aeroplane Hippies had the best music the best drugs the best sex But most of all they had the best trips With woefully inadequate funds and little hope of actually making it through such notorious hot spots as the Balkans Iran and Afghanistan Peter never one to err on the side of caution followed the trail overland to the East over the next eight months and through twenty five countries It would prove to be a journey of exhilarating highs and on occasions frustrating lows of diverse experiences including the world s most expensive disco in Albania the bombed out villages of Croatia the opium fields of Laos student riots in Jakarta an all night beach rave in Thailand and memorable encounters with a wonderful cast of often eccentric at times exasperating and once in a while overly amorous characters Striking a chord with anyone who has embarked on such a life enhancing Grand Tour and entertaining and perhaps alarming all who love to read about such adventures but would never be fool enough to grab that rucksack and go The Wrong Way Home is a funny irreverent acutely observed travel classic Inspirational stuff FHM Moore s a sharp observer of the bizarre Read enjoy escape Maxim A perceptive subversive and hilarious book Sydney Morning Herald

The Impact of Tourism in East Africa
Anne Storch,Angelika Mietzner,2021-05-25 This book explores the relationship between imperial formations and individual encounters at African tourist sites spaces of leisure healing and work It examines how encounters between tourists and hosts tend to be constructed along colonial thought lines and considers how players in the hospitality industry do not interact as coeval participants but are racialised scripted and positioned according to colonially established order The authors focus on the language of these encounters not only speech performance and response but also silence resonance emptiness noise objectified materialised evasive and confusing Through its exploration of language in these encounters the volume shows that ruination is the one feature that is omnipresent in the multiple and diverse tourist settings of the postcolonial world This book is open access under a CC BY ND licence

The Swahili Novels of Tanzanian Women Izabela Romańczuk,2024-09-11 This book provides a rich and full analysis of female Swahili novelists from a feminist perspective highlighting their important contributions to the living Swahili literary and intellectual tradition Compared to the diverse and centuries old oral literature or religious philosophical poetry tradition developing since at least the 17th century the novel is a relatively young phenomenon in the rich body of Swahili literary output emerging only in the last hundred years Since then academia has focused primarily on male novelists largely disregarding important female writers such as Ndyanao Balisidya Zainab Burhani Martha Mvungi Mlangala Zainab Mwanga Lucy Nyasulu and Zainab Alwi Baharoon This book traces the evolution of women s writing in Tanzania highlighting emancipatory and feminist discourses as well as intersectional themes of class education and urbanisation The author demonstrates how concepts such as utu the essence of humanity aibu shame disgrace and heshima honor social respectability are used in the novels to articulate the value systems and social norms in Swahili communities including the gendered perceptions of women that they create Grounded throughout in the historical and socio political contexts of the authors it discusses this book will be an important read for researchers of African literature and women s studies
