Strategic Survey 1993-1994:

Strategic Survey 1993-1994 International Institute for Strategic Studies, 1994 Provides the Institute's annual analytical review and assessment of security related events around the world Strategic Survey International Institute for Strategic Studies, 1994

Intelligence Analysis and Assessment David Charters, Stuart Farson, Glenn P. Hastedt, 2013-11-05 These essays cover assessment systems now in place in Britain the USA Germany and Australia the bureaucratic dynamics of analysis and assessment the changing ground in intelligence and the impact of new technologies and modes of communication on intelligence gathering and analysis

The Muslim-Croat Civil War in Central Bosnia Charles R. Shrader, 2003-06-12 In The Muslim-Croat Civil War in Central Bosnia 1992-1994 Charles R. Shrader offers the first full scale military history of a crucial conflict in Bosnia between two former allies When the Bosnian Serbs and their Serbian allies attacked Bosnia Herzegovina in March 1992 the Bosnian Croats and Muslims collaborated to defend themselves As Serbian pressure increased and it became clear that the West would not intervene the two allies began to stake out their own claims Drawing on testimony and exhibits from cases presented before the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia Shrader describes the organization and tactical doctrine of the Croatian Defense Forces and the Muslim led Army of Bosnia Herzegovina He analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of the two sides in such fields as communications training and logistics He assesses not only the problems of command and control in the newly formed armies but also the impact of criminal activity the mujahedeen and the intervention of peacekeeping forces What looked to many like aggression by the Bosnian Croats Shrader views as the adoption of an active defense a doctrine embraced by U S forces against a predatory Muslim force He believes UN and European observers rushed to judgment regarding the aggressive intent of the Croatian command Far from being the attackers Shrader concludes the Bosnian Croats in Central Bosnia were clearly outnumbered outgunned and on the defensive Surrounded by superior Muslim forces they barely held out in their enclaves in the Lasva Valley until a cease fire was achieved in February 1994 Although Shrader's work is a detailed meticulous analysis by a neutral expert not everyone will find his conclusions comfortable But every serious student of the conflict in Bosnia will have to take his history into account Enhanced by maps useful appendices and a glossary this should become the standard work on military operations in Central Bosnia and a useful case study of internal warfare and ethnic conflict

The Rebirth of Europe Elizabeth Pond, 2000-08-01 This revised and updated paperback edition covers the introduction of the euro the fall of Milosevic and the impact of September 11 in European integration The rejuvenation of Europe as a totalitarian century ends and a global century begins is a remarkable story This book brings together the three dynamics of Europe's position at this extraordinary moment European monetary union the deepening of intra EU cooperation and the widening of the EU and NATO to take in central European members It looks at the broad political and policy implications of EMU and shows how the United States views this integration Elizabeth Pond a longtime observer of events in Europe and Russia sees these developments as the beginning of a new postnational European system that is replacing the centuries old nation state system She shows how belligerence and anarchy have faded away on the European continent as compulsory cold war cooperation becomes a habit and as French German reconciliation becomes the pattern for reconciliation between other old enemies She follows NATO s transformation into a reluctant peacemaker in Bosnia and the United States decision to remain a European power She describes the leap of faith needed to create European monetary union and charts the magnetic attraction of both NATO and the EU in shaping the democratic economic and social revolutions in central Europe She warns about the strains that will face the transatlantic relationship when the euro is on a par with the dollar as a reserve currency And she concludes by agreeing with former Polish foreign minister Wladyslaw Barteszewski that we are witnessing after the original birth of European consciousness a millennium ago the rebirth of Europe

The Security, Foreign Policy and International Relationship of Kazakhstan After Independence Murat Turarovich Laumulin,2002 Enlarging NATO Richard L. Kugler,Marianna V. Kozintseva,1996 A political military analysis of NATO expansion into Eastern Europe From Ethnic Conflict to Stillborn Reform Shale Horowitz,2005-04-27 From Ethnic Conflict to Stillborn Reform is the first complete treatment of the major post communist conflicts in both the former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Serbia and the former Soviet Union Armenia Azerbaijan Georgia Moldova and Tajikistan It is also the first work that focuses not on causes but rather on consequences for democratization and market reform the two most widely studied political outcomes in the developing world Building on existing work emphasizing the effects of economic development and political culture the book adds a new comprehensive treatment of how war affects political and economic reform Author Shale Horowitz employs both statistical evidence and historical case studies of the eight new nations to determine that ethnic conflict entangles distracts and destabilizes reformist democratic governments while making it easier for authoritarian leaders to seize and consolidate power As expected economic backwardness worsens these tendencies but Horowitz finds that powerful reform minded nationalist ideologies can function as antidotes The comprehensiveness of the treatment use of both qualitative and quantitative analysis and focus on standard concepts from comparative politics make this book an excellent tool for classroom use as well as a ground breaking analysis for scholars

The West's Road to 9/11 D. Carlton,2005-09-08 The West s Road to 9 11 offers a detailed explanation of the handling of the challenge of terrorism by the USA the UK and the West over the last thirty years David Carlton contends that anti terrorist rhetoric by the Governments of the West frequently masked indifference to the activities of many practitioners of non state violence and that in the case of the United States it did not hesitate even to sponsor those terrorist movements if deemed supportive of its wider geopolitical objectives

Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan Since the disintegration of the Soviet Union this security complex has tended to distance itself from a Russian centered approach to foreign relations has rejected involvement with a Turkey oriented sphere of influence and has shifted toward an Iran oriented security complex A major reason for these developments has been the activities of the three rival powers Iran Turkey and Russia As Peimani explains these states have strong long term interests in the region earlier rivalries which were dormant under Soviet rule have reawakened since the breakup of the USSR While Russia attempts to reincorporate Central Asia into its security complex Iran and Turkey seek to include it in their spheres of influence The rivalry among these states will largely determine the future development of the region and the individual states
