McCarthy, 2005 People, States and Regions Anne Hammerstad, 2005 This book assesses the achievements of Southern

African security integration in a comparative perspective Edited by Dr Anne Hammerstad it highlights some of the main challenges facing SADC and suggests some potential ways they could be overcome by learning from other regional initiatives It argues that of the regional organisations reviewed SADC could in particular benefit from emulating some of the practical policies developed by the Organisation for Security and Co operation in Europe to build and strengthen democratic governance and the rule of law in member states SADC would also do well to take a closer look at ECOWAS s border approach to dealing proactively with political crises in the West African region The book compares the vision of the SADC s regional security integration scheme set out in various regional agreements with its reality Then it places SADC s security integration efforts within the greater picture of the transformation of Africa s security architecture Lastly it reviews SADC s efforts in a global comparative perspective by looking at the efforts of other regional organisations such as the OSCE and the ASEAN Publisher description

Regional Security in the Wake of the Collapse of the Soviet Union Gabriel Gorodetsky, Werner Weidenfeld, 2002

Post-Cold War Defense Reform István Gyarmati, Theodor Winkler, 2002 With landslide political changes in Europe in the early 1990s politicians and military planners started to contemplate their possible effects on military postures Most countries however did not enforce plans for post Cold War reforms because they lacked political will and money their conservative militaries resisted and they felt no real pressure from any clear and present threat Fortunately debates have begun about the future of military forces the revolution in military affairs and the plans for NATO and European security and defense cooperation This publication serves as a timely contribution to the debate on determining which lessons have and have not been learned while suggesting possible courses for the way ahead
