Street Children:

Urbanisation, Street Children, and Their Problems Nab Kishore Behura, Ramesh P. Mohanty, 2005 Street children can be considered as one of the by products of the urbanisation process in developing countries These children are to struggle very hard for their survival on the streets in very highly competitive environments otherwise they fall prey to the public or even to their own parents also Their childhood is seized they are abused and their labour is greatly exploited for the benefit of others In this book an attempt has been made to present a holistic profile of the street children of a growing urban city of Eastern India Especially the prime thrust of the book concentrates on the aspects like motive behind coming over to urban bases educational and occupational profile of their parents and their family size category and shelter of the street children educational and occupational pattern of the street children expenditure and savings occupational hazards use of earnings of these children by their parents nourishment and addictive behaviour health and hygiene educational choice and future perspectives attitudes of the public toward the street children etc Apart from all these the book also speaks about the pre and post independence legislations on these children UN s convention on rights of the child and National Plan of Action State Plan of Action welfare agencies working for the betterment of these children etc Contents Introduction Profile of Bhubaneswar City Family Milieu Socio Economic Profile of the Street Children Struggle for Survival The Problems of Street Children Legislation Welfare Programmes and the Street Children A Recipe for Development of Street Children Summary and Conclusion

Street Children Gabriel Julien, 2022-06-30 Street children Who are they Why do they live on the streets Do they deliberately choose to be homeless What quality of life do they enjoy What are the characteristics of these children These questions appear to be simple but the answers are extremely complex In general street children are those who are deprived of their basic rights and dignity as human beings They do not have proper education and are extremely vulnerable to all types of exploitation Street children have complex circumstances and are very vulnerable to exploitation and violence They lack vital services such as education and healthcare because they are marginalized hence they are deprived of their right to education because they work to support themselves or their families so a lot of red tape and bureaucracy will be needed to try to get them into school Very often the public are uninformed about these children and they instinctively judge and cast aspersions on them This book presents a clear understanding about some of the issues that street children encounter daily With the use of existing literature it tries to provide a definition and quantify the number of street children globally It explains the difference between children on and of the streets and highlights some of the notions of street culture and child abuse It is the firm view that if the public are more cognizant of the reasons why these children live on the streets they may be more compassionate This book does not evoke sensationalism but tries as far as possible to create an awareness of the lifestyle of street children
