The Ethic Of Time

S Rutherford McDill Jr.

The Ethic Of Time:

The Ethic of Time Wylie Sypher, 1976-11-01 Thinking with Kierkegaard Arne Grøn, 2022-12-31 Arne Grøn's reading of Søren Kierkegaard's authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity. The 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of Kierkegaard's text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy. Contrary to many approaches to Kierkegaard's authorship, Grøn does not read Kierkegaard in opposition to Hegel. The work of the Danish thinker is read as a critical development of Hegelian phenomenology with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience. Anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that Kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship, and Grøn uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of Kierkegaard's work. In Grøn's reading, Kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also as a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self-experience that is the body, the world, other people, and God. This book should be of interest to philosophers, theologians, literary studies scholars, and anyone with an interest not only in Kierkegaard but also in human identity. Ethical Subjects in Contemporary Culture Dave Boothroyd, 2013-06-14 Shows how ethical subjectivity is not based on individual morals but contemporary culture. Taking his lead from the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas and engaging with a number of ethical thinkers, Dave Boothroyd addresses a number of key contemporary ethical subjects. In doing so, he reveals how responsibility is grounded in the everyday encounters and situations we are all familiar with. The Ethical Record Samuel Burns Weston, 1890 Papers for War Time: Lambert, Henri. The ethics of international trade, 1915 Breath of Proximity: Intersubjectivity, Ethics and Peace Lenart Škof, 2015-02-06 This book offers an original contribution towards a new theory of intersubjectivity which places ethics of breath, hospitality, and non-violence in the forefront. Emphasizing Indian philosophy and religion, Vedas and Upanishads, and related cross-cultural interpretations, it provides new intercultural interpretations of key Western concepts which traditionally were developed and followed in the vein of reconceptualizations or revitalizations of Greek thought as in Nietzsche and Heidegger, for example. The significance of the book lies in its establishment of a new platform for thinking philosophically about intersubjectivity so as to nudge contemporary philosophy towards a more sensitive approach which is needed in our times. Its originality lies in its innovative approach which searches for the origin of ethical gestures represented in respecting the breath, breathing through the newly introduced concept of mesocosm as a space of a ritual or a new ethical space of intersubjective encounters. The book also introduces the possibility of an original ethics based on breath. Intended for philosophers, feminists, and others concerned with intercultural philosophy and comparative religion, the book will appeal to readers interested in contemporary ethical and political theories of peaceful conflict resolution and concepts of hospitality. A Breath of Hospitality will benefit all who seek a more sensitive approach in philosophy, including philosophy of religion and often neglected practical and educational layers of our everyday.
