Imagine a giant box is delivered to your front doorstep with your name on it. What's inside and what happens when you open it?

Write a short story about what it might be like if you woke up one morning with a mermaid tail.

Write about what would it be like if you had an alligator as a pet.

If you were in charge of the whole world, what would you do to make the world a happier place?

Imagine that dogs take over the world. What do they make the humans do?

Write about 3 places you would like to travel someday. What do these three places have in common?

Write a poem that starts with the word "if".

How do you feel when someone takes something of yours without asking? What is a good way to deal with it when that happens?

Imagine you walk out your front door one morning and it is raining popcorn! What do you do?

101 Creative Writing Activities (eBook) Tracey Ann Schofield,2000-03-01 I don't know what to write about is the common response when kids are asked to indulge in creative writing. This lively collection of unique writing activities will quiet that complaint forever. The 101 fun and functional creative writing activities in this book were designed to stimulate the interest and creativity of children. The author's philosophy is if it's fun, kids will do it. It is obvious in such whimsical ideas as having students write 10 ways to complete the sentence "If I were a ___ I would ___" or challenging them to write home remedies for the common cold, a headache, sibling rivalry, homework overload, etc. These writing activities encourage kids to write about what they know best, themselves, and turn writing practice into a time of self-expression. Students will find pleasure in the writing process using these ideas.
