Sons Slaves And Freedmen In Roman Commerce:

Sons, Slaves, and Freedmen in Roman Commerce Aaron Kirschenbaum, 1987 Based on the author's thesis Ph D Columbia University Sons, Slaves, and Freedmen in Roman Commerce Aaron Kirschenbaum, 1987-01-01 Sons, Slaves and Freedmen in Roman Commerce A. KIRSCHENBAUM, 1987 The Freedman in the Roman World Henrik Mouritsen, 2011-01-27 Freedmen occupied a complex and often problematic place in Roman society between slaves on the one hand and freeborn citizens on the other Playing an extremely important role in the economic life of the Roman world they were also a key instrument for replenishing and even increasing the size of the citizen body This book presents an original synthesis for the first time covering both Republic and Empire in a single volume While providing up to date discussions of most significant aspects of the phenomenon the book also offers a new understanding of the practice of manumission its role in the organisation of slave labour and the Roman economy as well as the deep seated ideological concerns to which it gave rise It locates the freedman in a broader social and economic context explaining the remarkable popularity of manumission in the Roman world Imperial Republics Edward Andrew, 2011-01-01 Republicanism and imperialism are typically understood to be located at opposite ends of the political spectrum In Imperial Republics Edward G Andrew challenges the supposed incompatibility of these theories with regard to seventeenth and eighteenth century revolutions in England the United States and France Many scholars have noted the influence of the Roman state on the ideology of republican revolutionaries especially in the model it provided for transforming subordinate subjects into autonomous citizens Andrew finds an equally important parallel between Rome's expansionary dynamic in contrast to that of Athens Sparta or Carthage and the imperial rivalries that emerged between the United States France and England in the age of revolutions Imperial Republics is a sophisticated wide ranging examination of the intellectual origins of republican movements and explains why revolutionaries felt the need to don the toga in laying the foundation for their own uprisings The Roman Empire Colin Michael Wells, 1995 This sweeping history of the Roman Empire from 44 BC to AD 235 has three purposes to describe what was happening in the central administration and in the entourage of the emperor to indicate how life went on in Italy and the provinces in the towns in the countryside and in the army camps and to show how these two different worlds impinged on each other Colin Wells's vivid account is now available in an up to date second edition Urban Craftsmen and Traders in the Roman World Andrew Wilson, Miko Flohr, 2016-02-12 This volume featuring sixteen contributions from leading Roman historians and archaeologists sheds new light on approaches to the economic history of urban craftsmen and traders in the Roman world with a particular emphasis on the imperial period Combining a wide range of research traditions from all over Europe and utilizing evidence from Italy the western provinces and the Greek speaking east this edited collection is divided into four sections It first considers the scholarly history of Roman crafts and trade in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries focusing on Germany and the Anglo Saxon world and on Italy and France Chapters discuss how scholarly thinking about Roman craftsmen and traders was influenced by historical and intellectual developments in the modern world and how different national research traditions followed different trajectories throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The second section highlights the economic strategies of craftsmen and traders examining strategies of long distance traders and the phenomenon of specialization and presenting case studies of leather working and bread baking In the third section the human factor in urban crafts and trade including the role of apprenticeship gender freedmen and professional associations is analysed and the volume ends by exploring the position of crafts in urban space considering the evidence for artisanal clustering in the archaeological and papyrological record and providing case studies of the development of commercial landscapes at Aquincum on the Danube and at Sagalassos in Pisidia
