

THROWAWAY PEOPLE

by Mallory Eaglewood

Birdie's world is forever changed when she discovers the lifeless body of a fisherman on a Scottish beach. This tragic event brings back haunting memories of her older brother's mysterious disappearance from her family when she was just eleven years old. Birdie was told to forget him, and eventually she did—until that day on the beach when she knew that she must return to her Native roots, to find her brother Gerald.

Birdie's quest takes her from the Scottish Highlands, where she has found love and family, to her British Columbia hometown to seek the truth about her brother and her ancestral history. As a Métis woman, she must grapple with her Indigenous heritage, a legacy she's been raised to conceal, and mend the fragments of their family.

However, to achieve that goal, she must risk everything to navigate a challenging path of racism, betrayal, and her own guilt. Her exploration of a painful past leads her into the path of an old murderer, a wrongful conviction, and a relentless murderer intent on burying his crimes at any cost.

While Birdie navigates her way through a labyrinth of secrets, the inconvenient truths of the historical and contemporary experiences of Indigenous people emerge. Her pursuit of the truth becomes a transformative odyssey, both for her lost family and for herself. As Birdie confronts her fears, she uncovers answers—about family, reconciliation, and love.

Inspired by her Native grandmother and her heritage, Mallory Eaglewood created her haunting song—the book you now hold in your hands. Throwaway People draws from the experiences of her Assiniboine grandmother's harrowing journey as a Residential School survivor and her grandfather's poignant tale of deportation from Scotland during the Scottish Clearances. As well as her own personal experiences living in Scotland.

Furthermore, Mallory has lectured on Native studies for many years and owned a host company exclusively showcasing First Nations in their traditional lands.

A decorated author, Mallory's accolades include the prestigious Author of the Year award from the Princess Newspaper, and her articles can be seen in various magazines. Her previous books include poetry in English and French, short stories, and plays. As a member of the Federation of BC Writers and the League of Canadian Poets, she is an active presence in the literary community.

No More Throw-away People Edgar S. Cahn,2000 Do we have to work for the cash machine Is there another way to participate in the economy This book will tell you all about time dollars reciprocity and co production a book that offers inspiration to agents of change for social justice and a better world for our children

The Money Changers David Boyle,2015-12-22 Since money was invented there has been a debate about better ways of creating it and better rules to govern how it works until the last generation when it began to seem that the money system had been handed down by God and remained unchanged ever since But the last few years have seen an increasingly powerful resurgence of interest in changing the system fundamentally and bringing the monetary trends that affect all our lives under our control Few realize that the debate has roots and a tradition covering mainstream economists like Keynes and Hayek statesmen like Lincoln entrepreneurs like Ford and Soros as well as the imaginative mavericks behind local currencies and e money This volume collects together some of their most influential writings to provide a handbook on a vital train of ideas and a guide to a debate on changing money that is becoming increasingly important

Saved at Last from Among the Mormons Cornelia Paddock,Mrs. A. G. Paddock,1881

One Foot on the Rockies Joan M. Jensen,1995 This stimulating book examines the experience of women artists in the American West The women studied here range from Joseppa Dick Pomo basketmaker to Georgia O'Keeffe from dancer Isadora Duncan to African American writer Ntozake Shange and dozens of other women who lived in a fertile crescent that Jensen calls the Pacific Southwest during the last century By recovering the work of so many writers painters photographers and craftswomen Jensen expands the history of women in the West She also explores the cultural climate necessary to support creative work and considers questions of tradition and memory examining the forms available to writers such as Buffalo Bird Woman Christine Quintasket Ruth Benedict Sui Sin Far and Agnes Smedley Finally she engages the theories of history and creativity that determine what society chooses to remember and preserve The Library of Wit and Humor, Prose and Poetry Ainsworth Rand Spofford, Rufus Edmonds Shapley, 1884 New Mexico Magazine, 1984-07 Orders and Regulations for Field Officers of the Salvation Army William Booth, 1888 Orders and Regulations for Field Officers of the Salvation Army Salvation Army, William Booth, 1886 Vital Issues, 1991 Reading with Earth Anne Elvey, 2022-08-25 Winner of the 2023 ANZATS Award for the Best Monograph by an Established Scholar Applying a re-envisioned ecological feminist hermeneutics this book builds on two important responses to twentieth and twenty-first century situations of ecological trauma especially the complex contexts of climate change and cross-species relations first ecological feminism second ecological hermeneutics in the Earth Bible tradition By way of readings of selected biblical texts this book suggests that an ecological feminist aesthetic bringing present situation and biblical text into conversation through engagement with activism and literature principally poetry is helpful in decolonizing ethics Such an approach is both informed by and speaks back to the new materialism in ecological criticism Zulu-English Dictionary John William Colenso, 1884 The world of wit and humour, ed. by G.M. Fenn World, 1891 Racism Jennifer A. Hurley, 1998 This book offers a variety of perspectives on the status of race relations in America and provides different views on how to eradicate racism and its legacies The Mind Pool Charles Sheffield, 1993 In the 23rd century out of all the races of the galaxy only humanity has discovered the secret of travel between the stars When a threat to all life arises from non-living cyborgs suddenly the peculiar human virtues of valor and stubbornness make the despised Earthlings the saviors of all Thirty, 1991 Vita-pathy; a Sure Means of Health and Happiness and the Harbinger of Perpetual Life John Bunyan Campbell, 1896 Mapula Brenda Schmahmann, 2006 The Mapula Embroidery Project in the Winterveld is one of the most important community art projects in South Africa In addition to generating an income for economically disadvantaged women Mapula embroideries couple high levels of technical and visual artistry with topics that speak eloquently of public histories as well as women's personal experiences Dazzling in colour and inventive in design the embroideries also engage compellingly with social and political issues that have shaped the lives of their makers In Mapula Embroidery and Empowerment in the Winterveld Brenda Schmahmann discusses the complex circumstances that resulted in the founding of Mapula in 1991 when the Winterveld was part of the former homeland of Bophuthatswana She examines the backgrounds of project members revealing how women's experiences of disempowerment have been bound up with the politics of race and gender She explores the ways in which the Mapula Embroidery Project is managed and organised identifying the challenges that confront those engaged in development work She also offers a detailed analysis of a range of embroideries placing particular emphasis on the women's choice and treatment of subject matter and suggesting that topics chosen by the embroiderers frequently address political and economic disempowerment As her study indicates Mapula embroideries are remarkable works of art that not only attest to the creativity of South African women but also provide us with invaluable insights about the anxieties and aspirations of females in a transforming society Mapula Embroidery and Empowerment in the Winterveld is the most comprehensive study of Mapula to be published to date and the first book with an exclusive focus on a community embroidery project in South Africa Amazon Economic Dislocation and Job Loss ,1985 Fragmented Families, Poverty, and Women's Reproductive Narratives in South Africa Kammila Naidoo,2009 Fragmented Families addresses a central question in the demographic debates on poverty and fertility transition in southern Africa In what ways do women's recurrent encounters with poverty serve to shape their sexual unions social relationships and reproductive practices The book focuses on the lives of a group of mothers and daughters from fifteen families in a demarcated part of the Winterveld area in South Africa and draws attention to historical socio cultural political and economic concerns in order to place in context or make sense of reproductive dynamics and family life at the micro level Vignettes drawn from fieldwork highlight the particularities of the area the persistence of historical tensions diverse livelihoods and complex gender relationships The intergenerational stories of the women suggest that they live with immense and increasing adversity and that strategies to contend with them sometimes include attempts to assert control over sexual encounters and reproductive outcomes The book contributes to a continuing debate on how changing socio economic conditions could influence prospects for and the nature of fertility transition in African countries The study concurs with alternative arguments that shifts toward lower levels of fertility might be due in certain contexts to experiences of severe hardship rather than favourable economic circumstances Instead of seeking security and risk aversion through bearing many children the response of indigent women in this area has been largely to resist reproduction at particular stages of their lives whilst using sexual relationships and child bearing as strategies to manipulate and secure resources In reflecting on methodological approaches the book draws attention to the limitations of survey research in efforts to elicit accurate representations of reproductive behaviour and fertility preferences and emphasises the usefulness of more engaged qualitative and long term fieldwork endeavours in building substantive insights on women's familial and reproductive lives
