English Language Teaching and its Impact on Cultural Identity of High School Students in Morocco. A Case Study at the Lycée Mohammed VI d'Excellence Adil Faouzi, 2023-08-23

Bachelor Thesis from the year 2023 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 16 20 Sultan Moulay Sliman University Ecole Sup rieuse de l Education et de la Formation course Immersion internship in the school 2 and Research Paper PFE language English abstract This thesis investigates the influence of English language teaching as a language of globalization on the cultural identity of high school students in Morocco Against a backdrop of a complex linguistic landscape this study navigates the intricacies of language culture and education aiming to contribute to the ongoing discourse surrounding the role of English in a globally connected world A mixed methods approach comprising a questionnaire for students and interviews with teachers from Le Lyc e Mohammed VI d Excellence in Morocco is utilized for a comprehensive exploration of the research question While the majority of students reported no direct impact of English language teaching on their cultural identity a subtle layered influence was observed through their adoption of Western cultural norms On the other hand teachers displayed an acute awareness of the significant influence of globalization on teaching English emphasizing the intricate link between language and culture They highlighted the role of English as a conduit for intercultural communication and as a critical tool for fostering cultural understanding The findings signal both challenges and opportunities reinforcing the essential role of teachers in facilitating language learning and intercultural competence in an interconnected educational landscape This monograph underscores the need for further research to delve into the subtleties of students perceptions and to navigate the complexities inherent in teaching English in a globalized environment ultimately aiming to offer empirical and theoretical contributions that inform policy and practice in the field of English language teaching

Understanding Language Classroom Contexts Martin Wedell, Angi Malderez, 2013-04-11

Arguably the whole point of education is to effect change in what people know and are able to do Globalization has contributed to a common perception worldwide of the need to introduce changes to the teaching and learning of languages The success of many attempts to do so has been limited by insufficient consideration of implementation contexts

Understanding Language Classroom Contexts explores and illustrates how what happens in any language classroom is influenced by and can be an influence on the contexts in which it is situated A clear understanding of these influences is thus the starting point for planning effective change The book considers many visible and invisible features of the multiple layers of any context and provides a framework for understanding the types of factors that may influence whether changes planned by a teacher or externally initiated are likely to be successful The book will help teachers and educational managers or change planners outside the classroom to understand why their classrooms are as they are and so to make informed decisions about what can or cannot or not easily be changed and suggests how any changes might be appropriately managed
