Policy Networks in Criminal Justice M. Ryan, S. Savage, D. Wall, 2001-09-05 Policy Networks in Criminal Justice is a comprehensive and challenging collection of studies on the workings of pressure groups in criminal justice and the articulation of pressure group politics and criminal justice policymaking Against a back cloth of policy networks theory the authors examine the role and activities of professional associations in the areas of policing probation law and the courts

together with campaigning groups such as those in the areas of penal reform civil liberties and victims In addition the book includes a study of the growing role of local authorities in the world of criminal justice Personal Data Protection in E-government Yuehua Wu,2010 Regulating Law Christine Parker,2004 Regulating Law explores how the goals and policies of the new regulatory state are fundamentally reshaping jurisprudence in the domains of public law private law and the regulation of work and business Fourteen areas of the core legal curriculum are reassessed from the standpoint of the impact of regulation on mainstream legal doctrine The volume examines the collision of regulation by law with regulation by other means and provides an innovative regulatory perspective for the whole of law To date regulatory scholarship has mainly been applied to specific legislative programs and or agencies for the social and economic regulation of business In this volume a cast of internationally renowned legal scholars each apply a regulatory perspective to their own area of law Their contributions provide a rich analysis of the limits and potential of legal doctrine as an instrument of control both in regulatory settings and in settings traditionally immune from regulatory analysis The result is an examination of the regulation of the doctrines of law itself and of the way in which law regulates other forms of regulation and social ordering law as subject and object of regulation Environment and Planning ,2007 The North Carolina journal of international law and commercial regulation ,2002 Transatlantic Governance in the Global Economy Mark A. Pollack,Gregory C. Shaffer,2001-05-23 This important book examines transatlantic economic relations in the 1990s and in particular efforts by the United States and the European Union to establish new forms of governance to cope with increasing economic interdependence The authors explain the development of transatlantic cooperation culminating in the multi leveled governance mechanisms of the New Transatlantic Agenda They assess as well central questions about the nature of transatlantic governance as reflected in competing international relations theories of intergovernmental transgovernmental technocratic and transnational civil society relations Bringing together leading scholars from political science and law the book provides a rich mix of analytic and normative perspectives that will be an invaluable resource for scholars students and policymakers alike Taiwanese Identity from Domestic, Regional and Global Perspectives Jens Damm,Gunter Schubert,2007 The tension between Taiwan s globalization and its ongoing identity formation is clearly visible in the economic political and societal spheres of the island republic Against this background the authors of this volume deal with the following questions To what extent has Taiwan become part of the Greater China region and in that sense a part of China How successful have Taiwan s endeavors been to escape China assert its own identity and communicate this to the international community How does Taiwanese identity connect to its integration within Greater China and beyond that is to its being part of a globalized transnational world The varied focus and range of the papers in this volume show that politically the result of the debate on Taiwan s national identity is undecided economically however Taiwan has become part of a Greater China region and cross Strait integration would thus seem to be inevitable Governance and Law in Transition

States Taavi Annus,2004 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,1999 The Korean Journal of Policy Studies ,2014 The Governance Discourse Bidyut Chakrabarty,Mohit Bhattacharya,2008 The volume aims to understand the concept of governance in its most complex manifestation and to identify its theoretical roots in the neo liberal mode of thinking cutting across different sub disciplines in social sciences It fills gaps in the available literature that tend to reduce governance to just another mode of public administration undermining the ideological challenges in the era of globalization The volume has two interconnected parts the first deals with the conceptual articulation of governance while the second is devoted to study the phenomenon empirically The essays together with the introduction provide a critical analysis of the governance paradigm which is concerned not only with the reform in public administration but also identifies new areas of research of a multi disciplinary nature By drawing attention to the changes in the theoretical domain of public administration the study is both a comprehensive review of the available literature and also a quest for new directions in the discipline Environment & Planning ,2012 Encyclopedia of Public Administration and Public Policy: Equal-Organizational Evan M. Berman,2008 Social Perspectives on Mobility Thyra Uth Thomsen,Lise Drewes Nielsen,Henrik Gudmundsson,2005 Globalisation is heavily dependent on physical transport as people and goods travel over longer distances and with higher frequency Movement and mobility have become integrated parts of late modern identity and practice and a state of flux can be sensed everywhere Bringing together the latest interdisciplinary theoretical approaches with empirical case studies analysing and appraising innovative policies from Scandinavia this volume demonstrates that mobility research is a key issue within social enquiry It addresses three broad themes Firstly mobility as a constructed social reality examining how individuals construct notions of mobility in their everyday life and practice Secondly mobility as spatial co ordination and transgression and finally mobility as a policy theme where the contributors explore recent developments in transport policy at national and European levels suggesting ways forward for both research and policy In the final section of the book new visions for research into sustainability and mobility are laid out
